CITY FREEHOLDERS
COMPLETE A PLAN
TO MERGE COUNTY
FOR VOTE IN FALLWillingness of One Suburban Member to Sign Proposal Assures Submission at Polls.BOARD TO DISCUSS SCHEME MARCH 23Urban Representatives Hopeful of Winning Over Some Past Opponents of Consolidation

The city members of the joint city and county Board of Freeholders have formulated a plan for the consolidation of St. Louis and St. Louis County, as one legal subdivision under municipal government, for submission to the voters next autumn, possibly on Oct. 12.

The plan is that of the city group and so far has been accepted by county freeholders only to the extent that one of their number has expressed willingness to sign it, thereby giving a majority approval to its submission to the people, in the hope and expectation that it will be rejected by the voters. One or two other county members might sign it for similar reasons. City members, however, believe the people will adopt their scheme.

word, after years of public discussion and nine months of debate between city and county representatives on the board, a definite test of the city's wishes and the dream of some county voters has been brought about.

Board Will Meet March 23.

Besides the city expectation that the necessary majority in the board for the plan may be gained through the vote of a county freeholder at heart opposed to the proposal, the city group hopes to win the earnest support of one or more other county members.

The proposal will be handed in at a meeting of the board March 23. The county's vote on the constitutional amendment of 1924 to create the creation of the Board of Freeholders, was 20,285 "yes" and 18,522 "no," which is taken as an indication of the desire there for some readjustment of relations, while the vote in the city was even more overwhelming. If the board submits the city's plan to the voters, a majority vote in favor of it must be cast at separate simultaneous elections in city and county, to make it immediately effective.

Adjusting relations as well as consolidating the two territories into one city, which would be governed under the present city Charter, the proposal would wipe out the present county government, concerning the form of which there has been much complaint, and abolish the suburban cities and all other municipal corporations in the county.

Ends County Court.

It would forever abrogate and annul authority of the County Court, administrative boards, and all other officers, boards, and commissions of the county, in place extending the jurisdiction of appropriate city officials.

Provisions of the city proposal designed to meet conditions resulting from the action of the city withdrawing from the county 50 years ago, when it assumed the unique position of an independent community with quasi-county functions. The city's residential, commercial and industrial growth has extended into the county far beyond the right limits thus fixed especially in recent years.

Both sides of the line have felt the need for metropolitan planning and control. Among the principal reasons for joining with the city are: Abolition of the old-fashioned County Court system of administration, supply of adequate housing, and extension of hospital and other institutional services of the city.

Arguments Against It.

Opponents in the county maintain they are better off under the present system and assert the city has no right to "gobble up the county." The loudest opposition comes from politicians whose jobs and power would be affected by the change.

The 1920 census gave the population of the county as 100,737 and the city as 772,897, but some observers think the county now has 150,000. A 1925 census estimate was 121,543 for the city and 106,000 for the county, a total of 227,543. Formerly the battle cry was "The county is a piggy bank."

Chief Provisions of Plan
To Merge City and County

PRINCIPAL points involved in the extension of metropolitan government, through the merger of St. Louis and St. Louis County as one municipality, as covered in the proposal of the city members of the Board of Freeholders, are:

Government: City and County are made one legal subdivision, with municipal government under the City Charter. The County Court and all other county offices are abolished. Jurisdiction of city offices being extended. Suburban cities and all other municipal corporations in the county are terminated. Six new wards are organized in present city territory, to be represented by Aldermen elected at large.

Taxation: The right of the enlarged city to levy a separate tax rate as a county is not touched. Provision is made to graduate tax rates for city purposes in present county territory and to make the rate for city purposes on bona fide farm land in the present county not more than half the total rate. Assessments under way in present county when plan may be adopted shall be completed by the City Assessor.

Police: The city Police Board, until readjustment of forces by the Legislature, shall employ enough additional policemen to give the present county efficient metropolitan protection at once. The city fire and police telegraph and telephone system shall be extended through the county.

Schools: The city Board of Education shall take title to all schools in the county and be liable for their debts.

Courts: Circuit, Juvenile and Probate courts in the county are abolished and divisions of the city Circuit Court increased from 16 to 18. Justices of the Peace and Constables in the county will continue in office but as civil officers, as in city, shorn of powers in misdemeanor and felony cases, including traffic matters. The Court of Criminal Correction and Police Courts are extended to cover the enlarged city. County and city jury lists are merged.

Finances: The enlarged city will be liable for debts of the county and municipal corporations terminated in the county. The city's right to issue bonds shall not be impaired, and specific permission is granted for bonds to create urban conditions in the present county.

Legislature: Existing State Senatorial representative districts are not affected.

CHARGE OF HOMICIDE
AGAINST BOY DRIVERWilliam Deslisle, 16, Repudiates Denial and Again Admits Hitting Nick Vitale.

William Deslisle, 16 years old, was held for homicide by a coroner's jury today after he again changed his statement and admitted he was the driver who fled from the scene of a collision at Garrison and Cass avenues late Saturday night, when Nick Vitale was killed as his light coupe overturned.

Young Deslisle admitted Sunday to police at Dayton Street Station that he was the driver, but when the inquest was opened Monday he denied the confession. When the inquest was resumed today he admitted he was driving the automobile of his blind father, John Deslisle, 1315 North Eighth street, which figured in the accident.

Signed Confession.

It was disclosed today that after adjournment of the inquest Monday Deslisle's elder brother, Floyd, 18, accompanied him to the House of Detention and persuaded him to dictate a confession which he signed before detectives. The statement in Floyd's handwriting was identified by William today.

"I was so nervous Monday I didn't know what to do, so I just denied everything," the boy said on the stand.

He related that he was accompanied by his father, Lena Burkowitz, 15, of 1535 Franklin avenue, and his brother, Morris, 6, when the accident occurred. He was going south on Garrison avenue and at Cass avenue met Vitale's machine coming west. Fenders scraped as the two drivers swerved and he drove over the curb and the coupe had overturned, he declared.

Miss Burkowitz, who declared Monday that young Deslisle spent the evening at her home, was recalled to the stand today and corroborated Deslisle's account of the route taken. She declared she did not notice any jolt and was not aware of the fact that the machines collided.

Dent in Fender of Car.

A one-inch dent in the left fender of the Deslisle automobile, an old Hudson touring car, caused the arrest of Deslisle. It was parked in front of Miss Burkowitz's home when the detectives noticed it at 3 a. m. Sunday, and knowing that a Hudson was seen leaving the scene of accident, they sought the owner. William and Floyd Deslisle were arrested at the Burkowitz home, but Floyd was released after William confessed Sunday.

After the inquest, Deslisle was returned to the House of Detention. The question of bail will be decided by the Juvenile Court.

ARMY BLIMP FALLS INTO HARBOR AT HAMPTON ROADSDeflation of Gas Bag Believed Cause of Wreck; No Loss of Life Reported.

By the Associated Press. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 10.—The United States Army blimp TA-5, with a crew of three men aboard, fell into Hampton Roads, near Old Point, this afternoon. The craft was said at Langley Field to have gone down as the result of deflation of its gas bag, which was not explained. No casualties have been reported.

The airship rode easily on the water after falling and telephone reports from Old Point said she appeared to be in no immediate danger.

At 4:30 p. m. observers at Port Monroe said the blimp had been taken in tow by a coast guard cutter and was being taken to Port Monroe. All the crew, the message said, had been taken off by the cutter.

The TA-5 is 170 feet long and the craft can carry five or six men.

NEW CHARGE IN WALL CASE BASED ON CITY LAMPSDirector of Utilities Accused of Favoring Invention by Toensfeldt on Which $50,000 Had Been Lost.DENIED BY BOTH THE MEN INVOLVEDTrial Postponed Until Monday by the Executive After Specifications Are Amended.

The charge that Director of Public Utilities Wall recommended, for the city's use, a new type of street lamp, invented and patented by his subordinate, Ralf Toensfeldt, is made in new specifications furnished by Mayor Miller to Director Wall today, at the opening session of Wall's trial before the Mayor, who is determined to remove him from office.

The Mayor charges also that on purchases of these new lamps, specified by Toensfeldt, the city lost $50,000, but does not charge specifically that this occurred under Director Wall. He charges further that Toensfeldt received $200 for his patent, and that it was developed on city time and with city material.

To give Wall's counsel time to meet this and other new allegations, the Mayor continued the hearing until next Monday morning.

Toensfeldt, when told of the new charges, said that he designed a type of street lamp on the city's time, while working under Wall's predecessor, Director Hooke, but that he never received a dollar for the invention, the sole purpose being to provide a type of lamp adapted to the city's needs. Both Toensfeldt and Wall said that Wall did not favor the use of Toensfeldt's lamp, and that no new purchases of these lamps have been made since Wall took office last May.

"My designing of the Holograph lamp," Toensfeldt said, "followed a conference with Ralf Brown, a member of the bond issue supervisory committee. He suggested that I design a lamp adaptable to our use should be designed. I discussed the matter with Director Hooke, and with his approval I made the design for a lamp which should diffuse the light, avoiding a glare in any spot."

"I patented the design, and assigned the patent to Charles Franck, general manager of the Holograph Glass Co. The assignment stated that the transfer was in consideration of $1, but I did not receive even that."

"This lamp was recommended for the city's use, and 8000 units were purchased, at $17 each. The lamps were installed in the parks and on streets, and about 750 of the original globes are still in use. But not one has been bought since Mr. Wall became director. Some have been put up in that time, but they had been purchased previously."

Wall Favored Other Types.

"There is no ground," Toensfeldt continued, "for alleging that $50,000 or any other large sum, was lost through the use of these lamps. Some other types cost less, and Mr. Wall favored buying the less expensive types, stating that the Holograph lamps were no doubt better, as they would be cheap in the long run, but that lamp types were liable to change, hence those that would last the longest might not be the most desirable."

As to a new charge of the Mayor, that Toensfeldt's "inefficiency" resulted in loss in the lighting installation at Bellefontaine Farms, Toensfeldt said that the work was done under direction of George Heath, who is a witness for the Mayor against Wall, and that any mishap which occurred was due to faulty planning by Toensfeldt.

Director Wall said the Holograph lamp and Bellefontaine Farms matters had never been mentioned to him by the Mayor before, either in conversation or in the letters in which the Mayor demanded that Wall should remove Toensfeldt from the post of chief electrical engineer of the utilities department, and appoint Heath in his place.

Heath figures in the Mayor's new charges as having advised Wall that the Holograph lamp was less efficient than other types—advice which Wall is charged with having disregarded. Wall, it is charged, "leaned exclusively on the advice of Toensfeldt, to the exclusion of others who could have enabled him to be independent of one person, especially when that one person was personally interested in a particular appliance."

Several hundred persons had gathered in and outside the Mayor's office today. It is not

TRIAL, SON SAYS; JURIST
QUITS FLORIDA FOR HOME

By the Associated Press. FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., March 10.

FEDERAL JUDGE G. W. ENGLISH of the Eastern District of Illinois left here last night for his home in East St. Louis upon receipt of news that his impeachment had been recommended to Congress by the House Judiciary Committee. He declined to say anything.

His son, George W. English Jr., stated that it was his father's determination to stand trial.

By PAUL X. ANDERSON, Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, by a vote of 15 to 6, decided late yesterday to recommend the impeachment of Federal Judge George Washington English of East St. Louis, concluding an inquiry initiated by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch 16 months ago.

The one-sided character of the vote, which surprised even the advocates of impeachment, increased the likelihood that the House will vote for impeachment.

Anticipating a vote of impeachment in the House, Senate leaders today were discussing the advantages of calling a special session to try Judge English after the regular session has adjourned. Instead of sandwiching the impeachment trial in with legislative business they favor disposing of the legislative program, voting to adjourn and immediately call a special session before the Senate and the House could get away after adjournment, leaving the Senate to conduct the trial.

Plan Wins Approval.

This plan seems to have the approval of virtually all the leaders in both Houses and in the event of impeachment probably will be followed. With the Senate devoting all its time to the trial it is believed that it would be concluded in about three weeks. Even that prospect is a disagreeable one to Senators who had been hoping to get away from Washington at an unusually early date this session.

As told in the Final Edition of yesterday's Post-Dispatch, the committee registered its decision in the following resolution:

Resolved, That George W. English, Judge of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Illinois, should be impeached for high misdemeanors in office.

A subcommittee was immediately appointed to draw up articles of impeachment, to be submitted to the full committee next Tuesday. When the articles have been approved, and perhaps modified, by the full committee, the latter will make its report to the House. A vote in the House to accept the report will be a vote of impeachment. A vote to reject the report would end the whole matter.

Members of Sub-Committee.

On the sub-committee named to draft the specific charges are Representatives Ira G. Hersey (Rep. of Maine, chairman), George R. Stobbs (Rep. of Massachusetts), and Andrew J. Montague (Dem. of Virginia). Hersey was a member of the sub-committee which took testimony in St. Louis, East St. Louis and Atlanta last year. It will present the report to the House at once. Several days of debate are likely to ensue, however. This is a matter of high privilege, and usually is given precedence over all matters pending before the House. It is not

WOMAN ELECTED MAYOR OF SEATTLE BY 5900 VOTESShe Is Now Council President and When Acting Mayor Fired Police Chief
—City Manager Plan Beaten.

By the Associated Press. SEATTLE, Wash., March 10.—Mrs. Bertha K. Landes, wife of a University of Washington professor and city councilwoman for four years, today is Seattle's first woman mayor-elect, having defeated Dr. Edwin J. Brown, incumbent, by almost 5900 votes in a municipal election yesterday.

The population of Seattle, according to the 1920 census, is 215,000.

The voters, according to complete unofficial returns, defeated the city manager form of government by 103 votes. This plan would have abolished the office of Mayor.

A proposition, urged by its proponents as alternative to the city manager plan, was approved by the voters, and 15 property holders were selected to draft a new city charter for submission to the voters at a subsequent regular city election.

Mrs. Landes was one of Seattle's two first councilwomen, being first elected four years ago. As president of the city council she has been acting mayor during several absences from the city of Dr. Brown. She is now president of the Council.

Her last experience in that capacity was when Dr. Brown attended the Democratic National Convention in 1924. After a brief investigation of police affairs, she dismissed the chief of police, installed herself in his place and ordered drastic changes in the beats and organization of the police department. Mayor Brown cut his stay in the East short and returned to reinstate his appointees.

Mrs. Landes has consistently denounced Brown's administration. In this stand she was backed up by Thomas P. Revelle, United States District Attorney, and Erving D. Colvin, county prosecutor, both of whom made charges that vice was uncontrolled by city authorities.

Unofficial compilations gave Mrs. Landes 48,700 votes and Brown 42,802. The total vote for mayor was 91,502.

Russian Grand Dukes—
Other Vintages Offered

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 10.—Considerable quantities of 150-year-old cognac, presented by Napoleon to the Russian Grand Dukes, are being sold in Russia for $20 a bottle. Forcibly, sherries, liqueurs and champagnes of the rarest vintages, the gifts of Kings and heads of states to the Romanoff family, are sold for as little as $10 a bottle. Hundred-year-old Chateau Yquem of the most delicate bouquet brings only $8 a quart.

Most of these wines come from the huge cellars of the former Russian Viceroys in the Caucasus. Although successive administrations in the Caucasus since 1917 have helped themselves liberally to these extraordinarily fine drinks, there still remain more than 5000 varieties of the most valuable and rarest vintages in the world.

The former royal cellars constitute one of the show places of Tiflis. In the high wooden racks, reaching from floor to ceiling, are wines from every country in the world, covered with the accumulated cobwebs and dust of 300 years.

ACCUSED OF LETTING THEIR MOTHER FREEZE

Sisters, 14 and 18, Arraigned for Manslaughter in Cambridge, Mass.

By the Associated Press. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 10.—Two girls, one 14 years old and her sister, 18, were arraigned in Superior Court today on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of their mother, Mrs. Nora O'Connor.

Mrs. O'Connor's frozen body was found Jan. 14 last when a policeman broke into her home to investigate a light that had burned steadily for several days. The indictment charges that the girls, Honora and Irene O'Connor, "wittingly and wantonly neglected the mother, with the result that she died. Both pleaded not guilty and were held for trial.

Evidence was presented to the grand jury to the effect that the mother had attempted to carry on her husband's insurance business in Newton after his death some time ago. She became a helpless invalid after a shock last May.

According to stories the girls told police, early in December when they had no coal and were so poor that they could buy little food, they began sleeping in the insurance office in Newton. Unable to move their mother they left her in the cold house.

PACKAGE SENT TO MAYOR THROWN INTO RIVER BY POLICE

Chief Gerk Says Two-Inch Pipe With Plungers Is "Most Dangerous Looking Thing."

A mysterious package, addressed "Victor J. Miller, Mayor, Personal, City Hall," was delivered at the Mayor's office by a postman this morning, but then sent to Police Headquarters. Chief of Police Gerk found it contained a piece of two-inch pipe, about six inches long, with a plunger like the detonator of an army grenade in a cap at each end, packed in excelsior and a corrugated box.

"It's the most dangerous looking thing I ever saw," said the Chief, without seeking to confirm his suspicion that it contained a dangerous explosive. "It looked so real" that he ordered Inspector Walton to carry it to the levee and throw it in the river. The address was typed and the postmark obliterated. The wrapper was given to postoffice inspectors. A page in the Mayor's office first became suspicious of the bundle.

MEN FOUND ALIVE AFTER BLAST IN MINE

Five Missing.

Associated Press. LENOIR, Va., March 10.—A death toll in the Crabtree improvement Co. mine reached 14 today, when more bodies were found in the workings where 29 men were working in a section of the mine isolated from the blast.

Outstanding figure of the P. J. Davis, the night watchman, was found in the mine. When the blast occurred, he was working in a section of the mine isolated from the blast. He was found alive last night and is still missing, but officials and rescue workers are hopeful that at least two of the men are still alive. These two were working in a section of the mine isolated from the blast.

Other eleven worked to build a barricade against the approach of the mine. L. C. Blair, one of the men, said he would go through the mine to learn if the mine was cleared away. He was found alive last night and is still missing, but officials and rescue workers are hopeful that at least two of the men are still alive. These two were working in a section of the mine isolated from the blast.

Some of them, as is the case in some mines, carried a bottle of fresh water. This, together with the food, was rationed, and was still a considerable quantity when they were found. Some of the men were found almost two hours after the blast, and were guided to the underground by signs, the first of which was found in the shaft. "Come to second right," was the second right another sign. "Third room." There the men found and nearby were the bodies of three who had met the blast. The State's Attorney said the charges against Malinsky "probably will be dropped," but he added he has not definitely decided on his action.

Married Three Times. The present Mrs. Malinsky has been married three times. She was divorced by her first husband, William Cope, on the ground of desertion, after they had lived together two years. Her second husband, who died Dec. 11, 1923, the attending physician said, was from pleuro-pneumonia and contributory tubercular meningitis.

Then Mrs. Malinsky became housekeeper for Malinsky during the illness of his first wife and continued as his housekeeper until they were married about a month after the death of his first wife.

The second Mrs. Malinsky has one child, a boy, 14, by her second husband. Malinsky has a grown son by his first wife. He is a native of Germany and formerly resided at Iowa, Ill.

WOMAN ADMITS POISON MURDER, GETS LIFE TERM

Mrs. Elsie Malinsky of Flora, Ill., Absolves Husband of Blame in Death of First Wife.

"IF YOU WERE A MAN I WOULD HANG YOU"

Judge Denounces Her and Man Weeps in Court — Charges Against Him Likely to Be Dropped.

Associated Press. FLORA, Ill., March 10.—Mrs. Elsie Malinsky, 45 years old, has pleaded guilty in Clay County Circuit Court to the murder of her husband, Ernest L. Malinsky, 33, former wife of her husband, Ernest L. Malinsky, and has been sentenced to life imprisonment in Joliet prison.

Mrs. Malinsky said she gave the poison to the woman in a glass of water. She absolved her husband, whom she married six weeks after the death of the first Mrs. Malinsky, of all blame. State's Attorney Harold S. Williams said he was inclined to accept her story.

The plea of guilty was made after the grand jury had returned an indictment jointly accusing the couple of the murder. Mrs. Laura Malinsky died last Sept. 26 under mysterious circumstances. The body was exhumed Dec. 11 and a chemical analysis of the viscera recently completed revealed poison.

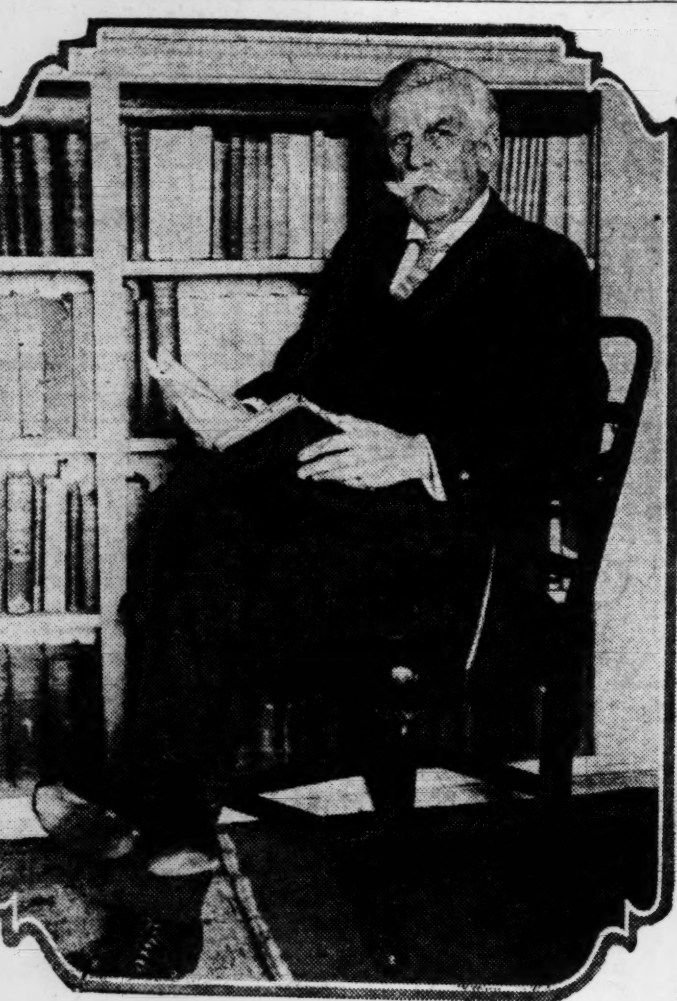

The State's Attorney said probably no further investigation would be made of the death of Aljillie Malinsky, first husband of Mrs. Elsie Malinsky, who died about a year and a half ago.

Denounces Woman. In passing sentence on Mrs. Malinsky yesterday, Circuit Judge Thomas M. Jett denounced the woman.

"If you were a man I would hang you," the judge told her. "The fact that you are a woman is all that saves you."

Mrs. Malinsky remained apparently unmoved. She will be taken to the penitentiary to-day.

or's reception room, when the trial, which opened at 10 a. m., was adjourned. Policemen and deputy city marshals had admitted about 150 to the room, of whom 50 had to stand.

First Move of Defense. As soon as the Mayor had called the gathering to order, Wall's chief counsel, former Judge Henry S. Caulfield, presented a motion to quash the proceedings, on the ground that the nine charges filed by the Mayor were indefinite in character, and did not show Wall what he had to answer.

Mayor Grants Continuance. The attorneys read the Mayor's paper, and Caulfield renewed his protest, saying that he had had no time or opportunity to prepare a defense. The Mayor asked if the attorneys were willing to make affidavit that the matter in his specifications was a surprise to them. Bartlett said it was. The Mayor, who acts as judge and jury in the case, then announced the continuance to Monday.

About 25 Women Present. Several members of the Board of Aldermen, and Robert J. Kratky, who was Miller's campaign manager, were in the gathering. In admitting a selection of those who tried to get in, it appeared that "Miller men" had been favored. About 25 women were present. Before the postponement, it appeared that all was in readiness for the Mayor to present his witnesses—the Mayor himself is expected to be the star witness—then to pronounce the director guilty and declare his office vacant. It was the expectation that Wall would be out of office before to-night.

WARRANT FOR A POLICEMAN ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Patrolman Harry Hummert of Mounted District Accused of Attacking O. F. Hefty During Raid.

ACTION BASED ON AN AFFIDAVIT

Complainant Alleges Officer Called Him "Wise Guy" and Struck Him Five Times.

Patrolman Harry Hummert of the Mounted District was charged with assault in a warrant issued to-day by Prosecuting Attorney Schweitzer on complaint of Otto F. Hefty of 2806 South Fifty-ninth street, who has made affidavit that Hummert beat and cursed him without reason during a raid on a saloon.

Hefty said in his affidavit that he went to a bar at 3334 Watson road the night of Feb. 13, where he met four other men. He said he had been there about 10 minutes, drinking and eating candy, when two policemen, who he later learned, were Hummert and Patrolman Harry Steiner, entered. Both were in uniform.

Hefty's Version of Case. "This place is under arrest. I'm going to search it," Hefty quoted Hummert as saying. While Hummert stood at the door Hummert went through the place, Hefty related, and then began to ask the men there who they were.

Struck Five Times, He Says. "I know that," Hefty quoted himself as saying. "If it does you any good."

Liquor Reported Found Feb. 6. In the raid of Feb. 6, policemen reported finding five quarts of wine and a half pint of whisky in a room in the rear of the bar. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Fania refused a warrant because the raid had been made without a search warrant.

Two Supporting Affidavits. Hefty is 27 years old and a shoe-worker. He said he was arrested only once before, four years ago, when detectives found him in a pool room and booked him "suspected of gambling." He said he was in the Watson road bar on Feb. 6 when Steiner and Hummert visited it and arrested the customers but added that they were released on the way to the call box when Steiner said, "Let's give them a break."

HONEST RECORD OF CROOKED DEALS GETS MAN 3 YEARS

Lee M. Pierce Convicted After Employee Produces Book of Fictitious Transactions.

GOT LOANS ON AUTOS THAT DIDN'T EXIST

False Pretense Denied by Defense, Alleging Mortgage Firm's Agent Knew Conditions.

A verdict of three years in the penitentiary was returned by a jury in Circuit Judge Mix's court this afternoon against Lee M. Pierce, of 4171 West Pine boulevard, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses as head of the now bankrupt North Side Nash Co., 2734 North Grand boulevard, which he organized.

The jury took two ballots, the first determining his guilt and the second fixing the length of sentence. Pierce's attorney announced that a new trial would be sought. A little black book which was described as "an honest record of fictitious transactions," by Max Cohen, former bookkeeper for the motor company, was a damaging bit of evidence in the trial.

The Honest Record. Cohen explained that it was a record of automobiles which did not exist on which mortgages had been drawn and discounted at the Remedial System of Loaning, Inc. During the summer of 1924, said Cohen, he kept the secret record at the order of Pierce, and John H. Green, who was secretary of both the motor company and the loan company.

No Testimony for Defense. The case went to the jury shortly after noon, after defense counsel declined to offer any testimony. Dismissal was sought on the contention that "false pretenses" did not exist, inasmuch as Green, an authorized agent of the loan company, was fully cognizant of the fraud, according to the State's evidence.

Evidence in Rum Ship Case. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 10.—Charges that the Canadian schooner Eastwood was shelled by mines off the New Jersey coast have been brought to the attention of the State Department by Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador. The master of the schooner, the home port of which is Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, and members of the crew have charged that they were fired upon by the United States Coast Guard cutter Seneca early in February, when more than one hour's sailing distance from the American coast, where she had cruised for a week with a liquor cargo. This has been denied by officers of the Seneca.

JEWISH WEDDING ON RADIO. Traditional Canopy to Be Erected Over Microphone for Broadcasting. By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 10.—An ancient custom and a modern invention will be coupled tomorrow night, when, for the first time, an orthodox Jewish marriage ceremony will be broadcast by radio. The marriage will be in the studio of station WRNY, where the traditional canopy for the ceremony will be erected over the microphone and the custom of breaking glass under foot will be followed with the sound transmitted through the microphone. Miss Minnie Gordon and Julius Goldberg of Brooklyn will be the bride and groom.

WHAT AUTO OWNER MAY DEDUCT ON U. S. TAX RETURN

Becker yesterday outlined the deductions that an automobile owner may make in figuring net income on his Federal income tax return. The deductible items under the law are:

Expense of operating a motor car used for business purposes—including repairs, gasoline, oil, garage rent, insurance, chauffeur's salary and depreciation. If a machine is used for both business and pleasure, the deduction may be prorated.

TWO BOSTON WOMEN WOUNDED BY MYSTERIOUS STABBER

Attacks All on Sundays When Victims Were Either Going to or Coming From Church.

By the Associated Press. BOSTON, March 10.—Two women have been wounded in downtown Boston since the activities of a mysterious stabber began here Feb. 28. Superintendent of Police Michael H. Crowley said today that the stabber had struck North Street, 2734 North Grand boulevard, which he organized.

The jury took two ballots, the first determining his guilt and the second fixing the length of sentence. Pierce's attorney announced that a new trial would be sought. A little black book which was described as "an honest record of fictitious transactions," by Max Cohen, former bookkeeper for the motor company, was a damaging bit of evidence in the trial.

JUDGE SAYS WORKHOUSE SERVES AS VALUABLE THREAT

Gayer Tells Safety Council Reasonably Heavy Fines Keep Violators in Check.

"The Workhouse sentence serves as a valuable threat to the careless drunk driver, but should only be used as a last resort," said Judge Gayer last night in a talk before the Safety Council at the City Club. "I have found that reasonably heavy fines imposed upon a violator will usually keep him in check, but where that fails, I am strongly in favor of a Workhouse sentence."

ELSIE DE WOLFE IS BRIDE OF BRITISH PEER

Former American Actress and Sir Charles Mendl Married at Paris Consulate.

PARIS, March 10.—Miss Elsie de Wolfe of New York and Sir Charles Mendl, head of the press section of the British Embassy, were married today at the British Consulate.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt and Ambassador Herrick were official witnesses for the bride and Embassy associates acted for the bridegroom. Miss de Wolfe, although shunning publicity, always has been an outstanding figure, even in Europe, during the war when she was discovered quietly and unobtrusively nursing wounded soldiers in her villa at Versailles. It was at that villa, which she handed over to the French for a military hospital, that she met her future husband, fresh from the battlefields of Flanders with a German bullet under his skin. She nursed him back to health. Their friendship developed into affection.

Political Mystery Man. Sir Charles, who is one of the political mystery men of Europe, occupied a position of unusual confidence with Lord Crewe, British Ambassador to Paris.

Since the war Sir Charles ostensibly has been head of the British Embassy press bureau. In reality he is the possessor of more diplomatic secrets than any other man in Europe. He was knighted a few years ago for invaluable services rendered to the Government.

Engagement a Surprise. As soon as the war started Sir Charles enlisted as a private. He rose to be a Lieutenant. After being invalided from the army he was sent on special missions of a secret nature by his Government.

50 TRAWLERS, WITH CREWS, LOST DURING TERRIFIC GALE

Belgrade Dispatch Says Train Was Overturned Along the Dalmatian Coast.

VIENNA, March 10.—A Belgrade dispatch to the newspaper Pester Lloyd of Budapest reports that 50 trawlers with their crews were sunk along the Dalmatian coast during a terrific gale. On shore a train was overturned and many passengers were seriously hurt.

The Italian freighter Seneca was shattered on the rocks of Spalato Harbor. Half the crew perished. From Trieste comes word that the Lloyd steamship Palatino was forced by the terrible weather to take refuge in the uncharted Dalmatian Bay, having lost two masts and all her lifeboats. The Spalato Coast is strewn with uprooted trees; many houses have been unroofed and the city is suffering from a scarcity of food. Steamers have been unable to make the harbor in the past three days.

By the Associated Press. INNSBRUCK, Austria, March 10.—Many avalanches have occurred over two days of a very heavy snow fall, tying up completely on road and rail traffic. The train on which Chancellor Ramek was proceeding to Geneva was stalled for five hours between two mountains.

By the Associated Press. VIENNA, March 10.—Dispatches to the Arbeiter Zeitung say the town of Ljeto, in Bosnia, was razed by a hurricane yesterday, and the entire population is homeless. No mention is made of casualties.

and acquitted himself so brilliantly that he became the indispensable instrument of Britain's political enterprises and ambitious abroad.

U. S. INTERCEDES FOR AMERICAN CLERGY IN MEXICO

Note Said to Concede Right to Expel Them, but Suggests They Be Treated Considerately.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The United States Government has placed itself on record as contending that American clergymen should not be made to suffer unduly from the interpretation of the religious clauses of the Mexican Constitution by the Calles Government.

Ambassador Sheffield, it is announced, presented the attitude of the State Department in a note to the Mexican Foreign Office.

While the communication was not made public, it is believed to concede Mexico's right to expel clergymen, but couples with this the suggestion that all American citizens in that republic should be given full consideration and ample opportunity to leave.

Ambassador Sheffield reported that the threatened arrest in Vera Cruz State of the Rev. F. J. Krill, an American Catholic priest, had been "satisfactorily settled," by details were withheld. Jalapa authorities, it was indicated, were favorable to allowing the priest to remain.

Mexican Official Beaten When Trying to Enter Cathedral.

By the Associated Press.
TEPEC, Nayarit, Mexico, March 10.—Charged by church members with having made sport of religion and attempting to enter a cathedral while wearing a large sombrero, the Secretary of the State of Nayarit was badly beaten by worshippers. He was rescued when it seemed he would be beaten to death.

It was said that he entered the cathedral with orders to close it. The orders were not delivered.

Bill Proposes U. S. Oil Stations.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The President would be authorized to open public kerosene, gasoline and oil stations in times of excessive high prices, and to purchase and sell coal to the public in isolated lots in times of emergency, under two bills presented today by Senator McMaster (Rep.) of South Dakota. An appropriation of $5,000,000 would be provided in the gasoline bill and $1,000,000 in the coal bill. McMaster said it was not his purpose to put the Federal Government into business, but merely to protect the public in emergencies.

VOTE ON CITY PLAN
TO MERGE COUNTY

third power has been ignored as unfair and undesirable.

Eight Previous Proposals.

Eight previous proposals have been laid before the board. Three were by Hugh K. Wagner, a city member, one under each power. Robert A. Roessel (county) offered one each under the first and second powers. Arthur V. Lashly, Joseph C. McAtee and Clarence L. Shotwell (all county) each presented an idea under the second power. These all looked chiefly to creation of a metropolitan area under a commission.

From the time of its organization, last June, until January, the Board of Freeholders did not progress far. In the temporary absence in Europe of one city member the county group seized the advantage in framing the rules. Later, when city members complained, county members accused them of unfair tactics also. The formal board meetings were devoted largely to debate on ways and means.

On Jan. 6 the nine city freeholders began to hold private meetings almost weekly, deciding to unite on a single plan on which they would stake the city's hopes. They enlisted the aid of the board's hired statistician, engineer and lawyer. The proposal here presented is the result.

The city members, who declare that their scheme, carefully considered, will be the most advantageous for the people of city and county, are:

City Members of Board.
Mrs. Roscoe F. Anderson, a former president of the St. Louis League of Women Voters; Maurice J. Cassidy, secretary of the Building Trades Council; Henry S. Caulfield, chairman of the board, formerly City Counselor, Congressman, Judge of the St. Louis Court of Appeals and counsel of the 1913-14 Board of Freeholders; John P. Collins, secretary of the board, attorney, and secretary of the last Constitutional Convention; Mrs. Ernest R. Kroeger, a women's leader; Frederick W. Lehmann, former Solicitor-General of the United States; Leo S. Rasseleur, former Circuit Judge; J. F. O. Reller, real estate and insurance agent; Hugh K. Wagner, patent and general attorney, last reviser of the municipal code, and annexation leader.

County members are: Fred Egan, boss of the county; A. E. L. Gardner, who has said he would be willing to join the city group in voting to submit the city plan; Charles J. Harwood, Arthur V. Lashly, Joseph C. McAtee, Robert A. Roessel, Clarence L. Shotwell, Frank A. Thompson and Julius O. Trampe.

NEW YORK POLICE FIND WAY TO CLOSE GAMBLING HOUSES

They Wait Outside Places and Sub-

Under Old Law.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, March 10.—With the co-operation of District Attorney Banton, Police Commissioner McLaughlin has begun a campaign to drive every professional gambler from the city. It developed after the Dowling law, passed more than 20 years ago, and not used since, was invoked.

Armed with blank grand jury subpoenas, policemen have been stationed for two nights outside of gambling houses from which the police have been barred by injunctions against illegal raids, and per-

District Attorney Banton announced last night that proprietors of six of the places concerned have agreed to quit and six others have indicated willingness to leave town. The Dowling act was passed when William Travers Jerome was

RYKOFF TELLS SOVIET CURRENCY IS INFLATED

Buying Power of Ruble Abroad on Wane — Urges Relentless Measures.

By the Associated Press

LENNINGRAD, March 10.—Premier Rykoff today sounded a warning against Russia being forced to adopt a policy of inflation to extricate itself from the present economic crisis. Addressing the members of the Leningrad soviet, he admitted frankly that the buying capacity of the ruble had decreased abroad, whereas the demand for gold and foreign currency within Russia had increased.

"This is nothing less than inflation," he declared, "and if it continues it will bring a general crisis in our national economy. That is the reason the Government has taken the most relentless measures against flooding the market with bank notes. We have curtailed all credits of trading corporations. An equilibrium must be restored between money circulation and supply of goods."

"We have been forced to reduce the quantity of goods we expected to import from 1,000,000,000 rubles to 335,000,000 rubles."

Heavy Orders Abroad.

"We have ordered such a large quantity of goods and machinery in foreign countries that our exports are insufficient to cover our foreign bills of exchange. We, therefore, have been compelled to draw upon our currency reserves to pay foreign obligations."

"During the last four months we gathered from the peasantry 1,000,000 tons less of grain than we had expected. Lack of industrial products in town and country is the most vital factor in the existing economic situation. The needs are so great that they threaten to disorganize the market."

Declaring that the Government had been forced to curtail its grain reserves by 3,000,000 tons, Rykoff said the country could not meet the needs of the population with its own products and that the Government might be obliged to import goods for massed consumption from other countries.

Savings of Peasants.

The peasantry, he said, had saved 100,000,000 rubles last year, after paying agricultural taxes. This, he explained, was one of the reasons why the demands of the peasantry for goods were higher than last year.

"The peasantry," he went on, "have two means of investing their savings. They either buy goods or keep their money in savings banks. Up to the present they have regarded grain a more stable element than the gold ruble and since they have found it impossible to obtain the necessary goods at the market they have preferred to hoard their grain."

Lincoln's Gettysburg Guard Dies.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Leonard Grover, for 60 years a theatrical manager, actor and playwright, and who was Lincoln's bodyguard the day of the Gettysburg address is dead here. He was 93 years old. He was manager of Grover's Theater in Washington and Edwin Booth, Tony Pastor and other famous actors appeared under his management. While in Washington Grover became a friend of President Lincoln, who occasionally attended plays at his theater.

TARIFF BODY ORDERED TO PRODUCE MINUTES

Senate Adopts Resolution After Robinson Replies to Letter Challenging Action.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The first step in the long heralded investigation of the Tariff Commission was taken when the Senate adopted yesterday the Smoot resolution requiring the commission to produce its minutes.

At the same time, Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the Democratic leader, served notice that he would call up his resolution authorizing an investigation of the operations of the flexible tariff provision. This proposal is favored by administration Republicans, members of the commission itself, and the Democrats.

Robinson, unopposed, another attack on Commissioner Henry H.
Glassie, whom he termed a "nominal Democrat" favoring a high tariff, and that he was "responsible for the breakdown of the commission."

Letter Provokes Assault.
His assault was provoked by a letter from the commissioner taking him to task for a speech made in the Senate several days ago. Demanding an investigation, which he said would prove that the Senator's charges were without foundation, Commissioner Glassie inquired if it was the Senator's notion of "fair play" that such statements should be made from the floor of the Senate when the Senator admitted that he had no personal knowledge of the facts.

"Surely a charge such as this should not be made without offering some proof of it," the letter continued. "Any statement that I am a nominal Democrat or an advocate of high protective tariff rates is not true. I, as well as other members of the Tariff Commission, repeatedly have stated that I welcome an investigation of the administration of the flexible provisions of the tariff act in all its ramifications."

Inquiry Urged.
"It needs only a word from Congress to make these minutes accessible to all. Once open, they will demonstrate clearly and indubita-bly that the charges which you are now repeating are without foundation. In justice not only to myself, but to other members of the commission, an immediate and thorough investigation should be made.
In truth, it seems to me that, under the circumstances, I have a right to demand such an investigation and I trust that you will insist upon its being made without delay."

Robinson told the Senate he accepted the challenge of Commissioner Glassie. He then renewed his charge that Glassie by his own vote had qualified himself to pass on the sugar schedule after two

INQUIRY INTO VALIDITY OF OIL SHALE CLAIMS BEGUN

Many Charges of Irregularity of Filing Made in Four Western States.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Secretary Work has begun an inquiry into the validity of oil shale claims in the West, many of which have been represented to the Interior Department as illegal.

The investigation centers in Colorado, Utah and Wyoming, and involves claims thought to represent potential oil resources valued at millions of dollars. Nearly all are held by prominent financiers in Denver, Salt Lake City, Chicago and New York.

Should the Secretary find any of undertake to cancel them under a new policy by which he personally passes on the validity of such holdings.

The inquiry was begun at the request of the Navy Department, which is seeking to prevent dependency of its reserves. Approximately 2000 claims within the naval oil shale reserves in Colorado and Utah are under examination. In addition, the investigators are looking over numerous mining applications for oil shale claims outside the naval reserves in these two states and Wyoming.

YOUTHFUL HIGHWAY ROBBER IS BETRAYED BY HIS VOICE

Because his voice was like that of one of two holdup men who robbed Thomas Novak of $29 near his home at 5318 Reber place Saturday night, Joseph Creely, 18 years old, a clerk, of 3326 Cambridge avenue, Maplewood, was arrested last night.

He confessed, according to the police, that he had held up Novak by jamming a monkey wrench against his back in imitation of a revolver, and implicated Albert Schaefer, 18, of Washington Park, an East St. Louis suburb, as his accomplice. Schaefer admitted he had helped Creely steal an automobile in Maplewood Saturday night in which they drove away after the Novak holdup, the police said.

After the holdup Novak told Detectives Taylor and Schneider that one of the robbers had a voice like that of Creely whom he had heard talking in a Maplewood poolroom during visits there. Novak did not identify either Creely or Schaefer yesterday.

MONGOLIANS BOB THEIR HAIR

By the Associated Press.
URUGA, Mongolia, March 9.— Mongolia's legions of nomad tribesmen are discarding their braids and bobbing their hair in the style of the American girls.
This is the news brought out of the desert by Col. Peter Kozlov, the famous Russian explorer, who returned recently from an expedition into the heart of Asia.

The Mongolian natives, Col.
Kozlov adds, no longer conceal their archaeological treasures from foreigners. They went out of their way to show the Russian explorers remains of Mongolia's ancient civilization. Among the objects they showed him was a stone figure of a gigantic tortoise bearing undecipherable hieroglyphics.

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL TO BE CONTINUED

Board's Resolution, However, Makes No Classification of School.

After a lengthy discussion of the fate of Central High School, now closed for reconstruction, the Board of Education last night adopted unanimously a resolution in favor of "continuing a Central High School."

Conflicting reports of what would become of the school were aired by members of the board, but the resolution adopted did not state whether Central would again be used as a general high school or be converted into a technical or junior high school.

Central Principal Criticized.

The discussion was begun by John C. Tobin, who offered a resolution to the effect that Central students transferred to Toussaint and Beaumont High Schools would be known as "Central students" and so regarded at graduation. Tobin's motion was defeated and the general motion substituted. During the discussion, Ben Weidie declared that Stephen A. Douglass, principal of Central, had been lax in failing to suppress propaganda in the student body to the effect that the school would be abandoned and that students would lose their identity as "Central students." "It was the principal's duty to suppress this idle gossip," said Weidie. "If he had done his duty, it would not have disturbed the people of St. Louis." Douglass today declined to comment on the remarks.

Other Business Transacted.

The board also decided that Commissioner of School Buildings Milligan should arrange with the Police Department and the United Railway Co. for safety signals near the Madison and Soldan High schools and an appropriation of $1850 for this work was made.

The Instruction Committee reported that the Steuben Society of America had been invited to submit a statement of specific objections to passages of historical textbooks which they criticized recently, in a general letter, as unfair to Germany.

COURT DROPS M'CORMICK SUIT
Federal Judge Denies Jurisdiction in $7,500,000 Fund Case.

By the Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 10.—Holding that the Indiana Federal district court had no jurisdiction over the suit filed by Harold P. McCormick as the next of kin to Anita Oser, his infant granddaughter against Edith Rockefeller McCormick, his former wife, from obtaining $7,500,000 worth of Standard Oil stock Judge Robert C. Bailwell announced he would dismiss the case.

The $7,500,000 has grown from a trust fund set aside by John D. Rockefeller for his descendants. The trust fund originally was $120,000. Anita Oser is the daughter of Mathilde and Max Oser, of Berne, Switzerland. Mathilde is the youngest daughter of the McCormicks. Oser is a riding master. Judge Bailwell held that the suit should have included Foster and Muriel McCormick, children of Harold P. and Edith, as plaintiffs. If however, they had been included the diversity of citizenship necessary to bring the case into Federal court would have been destroyed.

GRAVEL ROAD PLAN DROPPED
Highways Nos. 1 and 8 to Be Paved As Funds Permit.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 10.—The State Highway Commission has abandoned its former plan of placing a temporary gravel surface on unimproved sections of State Highway No. 8, a primary cross-state road in Northern Missouri, and State Highway No. 1, a primary north and south road in Western Missouri, and south road in Western Missouri, as road finances will permit. The sections affected are between Shelburne and Cameron, and No. 1, south of Kansas City.

The commission had proposed temporary gravel surfacing in order to provide all weather roads through the sections traversed by Nos. 1 and 8 until $200,000 money was available for paving the routes. Several communities along both routes objected to the gravel surfacing plan. The commission yesterday adopted a resolution to proceed with concrete paving of the two routes with 15-foot concrete "as fast as finances permit" and to grade the remainder of the routes in such manner, as in the judgment of the commission would best serve the traveling public.

Sugar Complaint Dismissed.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The complaint against the Holly Sugar Corporation of Denver charging it with lessening competition by the acquisition of the capital stock of the Southern California Sugar Co., Santa Ana Sugar Co. and Alameda Sugar Co. has been dismissed by the Federal Trade Commission. Commissioners Nugent and Thompson dissented to the action, which was based upon a report of the commission's trial examiner and the recommendation of its trial attorney and chief counsel.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Vreth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use for only 75 cents. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Vreth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by moving all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

SIRENS TO REPLACE GONGS ON FIRE APPARATUS HERE

Ten of Friction-Operated Devices Are Already Being Installed as Equipment.

The clanging fire gong is soon to be demoted to the place of auxiliary equipment on St. Louis fire apparatus. Fire Chief Alt announced today.

The hand-operated gong is to be replaced by a friction-operated siren of a type now in use on the Chief's automobile and the change is to be accompanied by the introduction of an ordinance prohibiting the use of sirens on any but fire and police department vehicles. The siren, in the opinion of Chief Alt, is far superior to the gong as a warning instrument and will greatly facilitate the progress of apparatus to fires, particularly through heavily congested districts. Ten sirens have already been purchased at a cost ranging from $45 to $75 and are being installed on the newer apparatus. Approximately 80 additional instruments will be required.

ONE DRIVER IS FINED $100, OTHER $25, FOR AUTO CRASH

Keegan of 820 Elias avenue, was fined $25 today by Police Judge Beck on cross-charges of careless driving growing out of a collision of their automobiles at Hall's Ferry road and North Broadway, on Feb. 21, last. A fine of $125 was assessed by Judge Beck against Edward Wagner, a driver for the Popular Price Express Co., 215 South Jefferson avenue, for careless driving as the result of a collision of Wagner's express truck with another machine at Twenty-second and Carr streets, on Feb. 18, last.

New Chemical Element Discovered.

URBANA, Ill., March 10.—Honoring the State and the University of Illinois, the name Illinois has been given to the newly discovered chemical element No. 41, its discoverer, Dr. E. S. Hooper, of the chemistry staff of the University of Illinois, announces. "The first part of the name, Illini, everyone will recognize," he said, "while the final letters form merely the scientific ending for metals. In other words, it is the metal of the Illini." Although we had decided on this name, it is a strange coincidence that we have received two telegrams announcing the same name from persons not then acquainted with each other.

HOOVER OUTLINE PLAN FOR INLAND WATER ROUT

Says 9000-Mile System to Be Developed in Mississippi River Drain Basin.

SUGGESTS CURTAILING FLOW AT NIAGARA

This, He Says, Would Store Lake Levels, Would Drop Three Feet Seven Years.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, outlined a complete inland waterway system, pointed out its economic necessity for the Midwest, and said he believed a foot channel from Chicago to Gulf was in sight. He appealed settlement of lake level disputes, spending money on "concrete steel, rather than on the law."

He spoke at the annual banquet of the John Ericsson Republican League of Illinois last night. He pictured the Middle West straddled by a row of toll gates composed of increased rail rates, Panama Canal and ocean freight rates at virtually pre-war levels with agriculture suffering more than industry, but both in a relation to different parts of America and to the world market. "In any examination of our country for remedies we naturally turn to the development of the magnificent natural waterways by deepening them so as to permit more barges on the rivers and of shipping to the lakes," he said.

Two Great Systems. He visualized two great inland waterway systems, the Mississippi system of barge lines and the Great Lakes system of ocean steamers. The latter of first importance, despite the great economic value the Lakes-to-the-Gulf route, a plottion of which is in sight. "If we examine our possibilities we find that the rivers of the Mississippi drainage system, between the Alleghenies and the Great Plains are disposed topographically such fashion that by deepening them we could project a 9000-mile consolidation system through which 20 states could find cheaper transportation for their import and port raw materials and much advantage in interior distribution."

Railroads have reached their highest efficiency in their history, he said, and rate reductions cannot be resorted to, the Panama Canal cannot be closed, nor can rates be raised arbitrarily.

Pittsburg to Kansas City. The system could comprise east-west trunk 1600 miles at the Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri from Pittsburg to Kansas City, a north-south trunk from Chicago to New Orleans, both deepening nine feet, with lateral rivers developed to six feet, bringing the area comprising St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha and St. Dakota points, Chattanooga, Nashville and Little Rock. Completion of the coastal canal would be in Houston and Galveston, in on, with other possible rivers, trunks, excepting parts of the Kansas City-St. Louis system, could be completed within five years. Two routes for the Great Lakes-to-the-Atlantic route—the Lawrence and the New York canal—are being investigated.

Meanwhile, the problem of the lakes, which dropped three feet in seven years demands attention. One-half the drop, according to Government engineers, is due to diversion of Lake Michigan at Chicago and six-tenths to the climatic cycle, said.

He said it is plain Chicago has some water from the lake but "quarrels concerning water quickly from the realm of engineering into the realm of emotion."

More Water for Lakes. "The real question is to have more water in the lakes," he said. "Lawyers and courts cannot do it—there—but the engineers. And I ask all the lake region consider that before the country goes farther we had better spend our money on cement steel rather than on the law. We should be as much concerned with the five-slacks of drop in levels as we are the sixth which it is proposed to add in the courts. Our United States engineers tell us that can restore the level of the lake by curtailing the outflow atagara until the fill up. They say that proportionately to the outflow it is a small job so doing we will have equalized vagaries of climate and stable the vagaries of emotion. "I am in hopes that we may be able to enter upon friendly dis-

CHICAGO, March 10.—Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, outlined a complete inland waterway system, pointed out its economic necessity for the Middle West, and said he believed a nine-foot channel from Chicago to the Gulf was in sight. He appealed for settlement of lake level disputes by spending money on "concrete and steel, rather than on the lawyers."

"In any examination of our country for remedies we naturally turn to the development of the magnificent natural waterways by deepening them so as to permit modern barges on the rivers and ocean shipping to the lakes," he said.

Two Great Systems.
He visualized two great inland waterway systems, the Mississippi system of barge lines and the Great Lakes system of ocean steamers, the latter of first importance despite the great economic value of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf route, completion of which is in sight.

"If we examine our possibilities we find that the rivers of the Mississippi drainage system between the Alleghenies and the Great Plains are disposed topographically in such fashion that by deepening them we could project a 9000-mile canalization system through which 20 states could find cheaper transportation for their import and export raw materials and much additional interior distribution," he said.

Pittsburg to Kansas City.
The system could comprise an east-west trunk 1600 miles along the Ohio, Mississippi and Missouri from Pittsburg to Kansas City and a north-south trunk from Chicago to New Orleans, both deepened to nine feet, with lateral rivers mostly deepened to six feet, bringing in the area comprising St. Paul and Minneapolis, Omaha and South Dakota points, Chattanooga, Nashville and Little Rock. He said it is plain Chicago must have some water from the lake, but "unnecessary water goes quickly from the realm of engineering into the realm of emotion."

More Water for Lakes.
"The real question is to hold more water in the lakes," he said. "Lawyers and courts cannot hold it there—but the engineers can. And I ask all the lake region to consider that before the controversies go farther we had better spend our money on cement and steel rather than on the lawyers."

"We should be as much concerned with the fixings of the drop in levels as we are the one-sixth which it is proposed to remedy in the courts. They tell us that proportionately to the gigantic outflow it is a small job. By doing we will have equalized the vagaries of climate and stabilized the vagaries of the sea."

"I am in hopes that we may be able to enter upon friendly discussions with our Canadian friends upon these problems of the lakes," he said.

He said President Coolidge had expressed willingness to approve an increase in appropriations for river and harbor work, which will permit an expenditure of about $20,000,000 next year upon the Mississippi system.

"The 'Great Lakes system' he continued, 'presents the possibility for a cheapened transportation for import and export of grain and raw materials and other goods to Europe and the North Atlantic for 12 or 15 states in the heart of the Middle West."

ITALY'S BIG BANKS TO FIGHT BEAR ATTACK ON STOCKS

Limited Liability Concern Formed To Intervene in Market to Buy Declining Issues.

ROME, March 10.—Powerful banking interests are getting together here to fight the bear attack which has been throttling the local market for some time. The Banca Commerciale has summoned the chief financial experts of the Credito Italiano, the Banca di Roma and the Banca Nazionale del Credito to discuss a plan of action. The result of this has been the formation of a limited liability company made up entirely of banks to intervene in the market and buy the stocks most threatened by speculation. The company also will have a big reserve at its disposal, besides getting help, if needed, from the Banca d'Italia, Italy's largest state banking institution.

The new group, which is called the Consorzio, not only will support sound industrial stocks, but will buy immediately a mass of stocks that are now slumping, due to the reaction of big speculations. These will be put on the market again gradually. All sound stocks which the bears are threatening will get the support of the inter-banking company.

The Ministry of Finance is aiding in the situation by reducing interest on short-term treasury bonds to 5 per cent. Count Volpi gives it as his opinion that the 6 per cent interest previously paid drew the savings of small investors from ordinary stocks.

BULGARIA HELPING RUSSIANS

Influence Felt in Artistic and Social Life.

Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News. Copyright 1926.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 15.—After a lapse of 40 years the influence of Russians in Bulgarian artistic and social life is making itself felt again.

Russians have been engaged to fill the posts of musical director and stage manager of the state opera. Many Russian professors have been admitted into Sofia University, where they teach languages, philosophy and science. Russian doctors are to be found in government and army hospitals.

In other ways Bulgaria is showing her gratitude toward the natives of a country that liberated her from the Turkish yoke. There is a state grant of 500,000 leva, a million Bulgarian francs, to the upkeep of Russian orphans who are being educated in Bulgaria. A similar sum is given to help Russian invalids, who number several thousand. Finally, there is a great deal of personal charity. Considering her own impoverished situation, Bulgaria is doing all she can for the 30,000 odd Russian refugees within her frontiers.

KING'S SON IN SHIP'S WATCH

No Favoritism Permitted for Prince George in British Navy.

LONDON, March 10.—Prince George, the King's youngest son, who has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant in the British Navy, will have to take his turn in endless watches, including the watch from midnight until 4 a. m. Lord Willingdon is stationed on the flagship Hawkins of the British Fleet in the Far East.

King George, who went through the mill of naval service, insists that his sons in the British Army and Navy shall take their turn in the duties of their rank.

Prince Henry, the King's third son, who recently passed examination for promotion in his regiment, the Tenth Royal Hussars, soon will be sent to the front in the army. It is understood that he will be appointed to the staff of either the Viceroy of India or of his uncle, the Earl of Athlone, Governor-General of South Africa.

MOVE AGAINST SEPARATISTS

By the Associated Press.
MADRID, March 10.—Premier Primo de Rivera's answer to the activities of the separatists in Catalonia is a threat to promulgate a law by which the separatists and all persons who do not show their proper duty to the country will lose their citizenship and their rights to practice their professions. Also their property will be confiscated.

As an outgrowth of the revival of the activities of the separatists in Catalonia the Government ousted the directorate of the Barcelona Bar Association last Saturday and appointed a new governing board.

With our Canadian friends upon these problems of the lakes," he said.

He said President Coolidge had expressed willingness to approve an increase in appropriations for river and harbor work, which will permit an expenditure of about $20,000,000 next year upon the Mississippi system.

"The 'Great Lakes system' he continued, 'presents the possibility for a cheapened transportation for import and export of grain and raw materials and other goods to Europe and the North Atlantic for 12 or 15 states in the heart of the Middle West."

We know from an engineering point of view that it is entirely feasible to make every lake port an ocean port and all their hinterland of states would at once become free of the waterway improvement, he said.

The railroads need have no fear of waterway improvement, he said.

Buildings on It Are Worth $40,000.

Stockholders of the St. Louis Aeronautics Corporation, owners of Lambert-St. Louis Aviation Field at Bridgeton, have voted to offer the field to the City of St. Louis for use as a municipal aviation field in consideration of the city assuming a $60,000 mortgage against the property.

There are 169 acres in the field, on which are hangars and other buildings erected at a cost of $40,000. The property was acquired for the international air races and Pulitzer Trophy airplane speed classic in 1923, when a payment of $70,000 was made and $60,000 was spent in grading.

A condition of the offer of the field to the City of St. Louis is that it shall always be maintained primarily as an aviation field under municipal supervision, but it may be used for fairs, military spectacles or great athletic events.

A Good Investment.
It is the opinion of officials of the Aeronautics Corporation that acceptance of the field by the city would be a splendid investment, it being stated that the property would bear another $50,000 loan and that the total indebtedness could be liquidated by revenue from the field from aviation and other sources.

The meeting at which the stockholders agreed on this action was held Monday at the Chamber of Commerce, and there was not a dissenting vote. In the discussions leading up to the action it was pointed out that other cities are having a suitable site for the prospective express transportation of airplanes across the country.

Mayor Miller today said he had not been advised of the offer, but would be glad to meet with the flying field representatives to consider their proposal.

BERLIN, March 10.—Dr. Kuczynski, well-known German pacifist, who has been a leading spirit for a referendum to decide whether the former Kaiser and former German Princes should have their seized property returned to them, informed the correspondent today that the requisite half million signatures had been received in Berlin alone.

This means that the Reichstag must bring up a law for confiscation of the estates. If the law is passed the former Kaiser and Princes lose their rights without further action. If the law is not passed a referendum on the question will be taken.

No athletic contest ever provided such thrills of anxiety and excitement as the election returns of March 9.

By evening it became apparent that Hughes had carried the Eastern States by huge majorities. Even the newspapers that had supported Wilson most strongly conceded to pay no attention to the morning of Nov. 8, to the confusion of editorial writers, who a few hours later were compelled to swallow their early morning words.

For, as reports from the West trickled in, doubt arose in the minds of the press that Hughes was making inroads upon normally Republican states. On the 11th, returns from California definitely showed a small Wilson plurality. He had received 277 electoral votes as against 254 for Hughes.

"Election day," recorded Col. House on Nov. 9, "was fairly quiet until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the first news began to come in. . . . The afternoon returns were fairly favorable to the President, since most of them came from Kansas, strangely enough, where they seem to count the votes as fast as they are registered. Then came the deluge. By 7 o'clock the news of the victory had gone heavily against us. Later Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey, Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana seemed lost. At one time Ohio was said to be threatened."

Morgue-Like Entertainment.
The campaign had been taken up prepared an elaborate banquet at the Biltmore Hotel to which I was invited but to which I declined to go. While I did not expect defeat I did not wish to be at such a gathering, the news of the victory largely by party leaders coming to tell me how they did it. . . . They are a good lot, the best I have ever known in a political campaign—clean, able and intelligent, and they deserve much credit for the President's victory."

The desire to talk, however, seems to be a passion which some people make a vice. . . . Even as the final election reports trickled in from California, I was sitting at my desk, and I was writing a note to the belligerents; that after he had written it and had made his points clear, we could go over it again and discuss it with more intelligence. . . . "I did not yield a point in my opinion that he would make a mistake if he finally sent it, nor did he yield in his argument that it might be effective."

"Nov. 20, 1916.—The Germans intend to push us to the closest point in the submarine controversy, in order to force us to intervene rather than go to war with them. . . . In my opinion, the President's desire for peace is partially due to his Scotch Presbyterian conscience and not to personal fear, for I believe he has both moral and physical courage."

Protests Against Cause.
"Nov. 27, 1916: After dinner we went to the study and began the discussion of the object of my visit. He read several letters and dispatches from abroad which Polk had already shown me. He then read a draft of the proposed note to the belligerents urging them to state what terms they demanded as a basis of peace. . . . "It was a wonderfully well-written document, yet, strangely enough, he had fallen again into the same error of saying something which would have made the allies frantic with rage. I have called his attention to this time after time, and yet in almost every instance where he speaks of the war he offends in the same way. . . . "The sentence to which I objected was: 'The causes and objects of the war are obscure.' I told him the allies thought if there was one thing clearer than another, it was this: that their quarrel with him was not one of the kind which they would settle by a peace conference. . . . He seemed obsessed with thought, and he cannot write or talk on the subject of the war without voicing it. It has done more to make him unpopular in the allied countries than any one thing he has done, and it will probably keep him from taking the part which he ought to take in peace negotiations. . . . It is all so unnecessary. He could have done and said the same things if he had said and done them in a different way."

Efforts Virtually Ignored.
As House had foreseen, the efforts of the peace advocates were virtually ignored. . . . "I urged him to insert a clause in lieu of the one to which I objected, which would make the allies believe he sympathized with their viewpoint. I thought he

I called up 'The World' and other newspapers, as well as the United Press, and urged them to undo as far as possible the harm done by the morning press in conceding everything to Hughes. . . . I was afraid if this was not done everything would go by default, and the states which we carried in the West by close margins would be neglected and we might be robbed of victory."

Delay With Note.
Col. House to the President:
New York, Nov. 30, 1916.

Dear Governor:
I have been thinking a lot of your proposed note to the belligerents, and I cannot bring myself to believe that it should be done immediately or without further preparation. . . . You have before you the biggest opportunity for service that was ever given to man, and I hope you will not risk failure. Since you have suggested your plan I have talked with everybody within my reach whose opinion I value, many of them having an intimate knowledge of the situation in the allied countries, and there is not one that believes it would be successful at this time. . . . I believe you have the situation in your own hands, and if you do not act too hastily, you can bring about the desired result. If you do it now, there does not seem to be one chance in 10 of success, and you probably will lose your potential position for doing it later. . . . The Germans are the only ones that believe it can be done now, and the wish with them is faster to the thought. They do not care how you come out of it, so it is done, and they reap a certain measure of profit in any event. . . . Affectionately yours,

THE PRESIDENT HESITATED AND, AS HE DID SO, THE BERLIN GOVERNMENT exploded a diplomatic bombshell. On Dec. 12 the Germans, weary of waiting for Wilson's mediation, published a note which expressed their willingness to enter a peace conference. The proposal contained no suggestion of specific terms, but its tone permitted the interpretation that Germany would concede no peace which was not one of victory.

Bernstorff Surprised.
The German peace offer, which took even Bernstorff by surprise, was bound to rob Wilson's note of any effect it might have had. If he published a note which expressed his willingness to enter a peace conference, the proposal contained no suggestion of specific terms, but its tone permitted the interpretation that Germany would concede no peace which was not one of victory.

Dec. 20, 1916: The President sent me today," noted House, "the original draft of the note which he has sent to the belligerents and neutrals. He asked me to return it, so I took a copy with the eliminations and changes just as he had made them. I thought it might be interesting, since the President may destroy the original. . . . I have seldom seen anything he has written with so many changes. . . . I deprecate one sentence, which will give further impetus to the belief that he does not yet understand what the allies are fighting for. That one sentence will encourage them to talk to him for 10 minutes when there was there and got him to eliminate from the original draft a much more pronounced offense of the same character, but he has put it back in a modified form. . . . He seems obsessed with thought, and he cannot write or talk on the subject of the war without voicing it. It has done more to make him unpopular in the allied countries than any one thing he has done, and it will probably keep him from taking the part which he ought to take in peace negotiations. . . . ## A Farcical Trial

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I voted for Miller for Mayor. But when I vote for a man to fill the important position of Mayor of the city of St. Louis and find that his personal interests are consulted before the interest of this vast municipality, and that these same personal feelings and interests prompt him to injure one whose work has been spent wisely in behalf of the city, one whose ambition is to live to see the unfolding and the realization of early manhood dreams in the completion of our wonderful and efficient water supply, then I like many of our citizens, know I have made a serious mistake.

There is only one way to determine whether or not this error has been committed, and that is by the trial of Mr. Wall before an unprejudiced commission and not before one man who is a party to the controversy and assumes the unusual role of judge and jury.

If Mr. Wall were tried by an impartial commission and the Mayor's charge of incompetency and neglect were sustained, then Mr. Wall should be summarily dismissed. However, if it developed that the charges have been trumped up by the Mayor's personal pique, then the confidence imposed in Mr. Miller has been misplaced and he should step down and out as he has threatened to do.

On the other hand, if the Mayor insists on railroad for Mr. Wall out of his position because he may have the power to do so without fair trial or just cause, public opinion will be the only judge. Should this occur and the citizens of St. Louis remain passive to such injustice, they will have ample opportunity to reap the harvest of their indifference.

The Contractor Scandal.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: THERE has been much said about the Miller-Wall controversy. However, there is so much at stake that the more attention given it by the public the better the result will be.

I have talked to a large number of people regarding this subject, however I have not heard a word of praise for Miller. Kratky's explanation of his fees for meddling in the city's business is neither clear nor satisfactory. He has admitted that he has meddled to the extent of receiving $500 for sending a contractor a set of specifications—it is hard to swallow—a contractor making a payment of $500 when he could receive a set merely by applying for them and paying a deposit. Kratky denies that he solicited a $1000 fee from another firm—his denial is a rambling statement in which he makes vague charges against Mr. Toenfeldt. If he had information that the successful contractor had Toenfeldt fixed why didn't he produce it at the hearing held by Miller? All in all, his statement is too absurd to believe.

If anyone must leave the City Hall, it seems it ought to be the man whose friend has been soliciting fees from the contractors who have the money to pay these fees will naturally alight their work and add the fee to the bill the taxpayer must pay. I KNOW.

Why Truck Drivers Speed.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I NOTICE that the Safety Council is trying to educate the truck driver. There is not much need for this, except for a very few of us. A truck driver does not speed on his own account, but because his employer overloads his truck, in order for him to get home at night to his family he is forced to speed. We are obliged to wait from one to 10 minutes for our C. O. D. money, sometimes longer, particularly in the West End, where the do not care how long they make a driver wait for his money. Then most of them have no house number or one which cannot be read. Out in the West End we find the entrances locked up with chains, which means a loss of time, which we must make up again by speeding through the streets, all to our great displeasure.

If the council really wants to reduce accidents here is the key. First, automobile manufacturers should not advertise their cars to make 60 per hour. Then the driver goes out and tests the speed which the manufacturer advertises. Second, put numbers on houses, front and rear. Third, open those locked gates in the West End. Fourth, open north and south driveway through Tower Grove Park; and last of all, don't overload trucks.

P. S.—Put governors on all trucks and pleasure cars, 20 miles per hour.

ENGLISH CASE PROGRESSES.

The public service which the Post-Dispatch undertook of ridding the Federal bench of the Eastern Illinois District of an unfit Judge is progressing. The Judiciary Committee in the House voted 15 to 6, more than two-thirds, in favor of the impeachment of Judge English.

The effort to impeach Judge English for misconduct on the bench has been a long, hard task. After the Post-Dispatch had gathered sufficient evidence against Judge English to convince the House of Representatives that impeachment proceedings should be undertaken, the subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee charged with the investigation of his conduct held a series of hearings. The members of the committee devoted themselves faithfully and earnestly to the task, giving a great deal of time and labor to a thorough investigation.

The evidence was so convincing that Judge English ought to be impeached, that the report in favor of impeachment to the general committee was supported by all of the members of the subcommittee except one, who was absent.

The general committee has given ample opportunity for a hearing. No limit of time was placed upon the defense of Judge English by his attorney. In fact, most of the time was devoted to the defense, only two or three brief speeches being heard on the other side.

Since the public hearing, the committee has gone over the testimony thoroughly, and it has been debated pro and con. The result of the entire investigation is a vote of 15 to 6 for impeachment.

The task is not yet completed. It is necessary for the House to order impeachment and to present the evidence to the Senate, which passes final judgment.

The progress of the case so far has vindicated the effort of the Post-Dispatch to maintain a high standard of character, capacity and fitness on the Federal bench, and to serve the public by restoring respect for and confidence in the bench. It has been a costly and laborious task, but we have confidence that the end will justify the labor.

REVOLT OF THE BUTTER AND EGGERS.

We side with the Missouri Egg and Poultry Shippers' Association in the lamentable affair of "the big butter and egg man." As President Hurst said at the opening of the association's convention in Kansas City, a man can sell butter and eggs without being a moral leper. But even granting that the butter and egg man is as bad as he is painted on the vaudeville stage, motion picture screen and newspaper page—granting that, has the world a right to judge him?

The private life of an artist should be nobody's concern, but his own. The world should ask only: "Does the butter and egg man sell good produce? Is his butter sweet and are his eggs fresh?" We deplore this attempt to single out butter and egg men for jibes and wise cracks. Because a man handles poultry back home there is no justice in taking for granted that he goes with chickens when in New York. Because butter is yellow and priceless, it does not argue that the butter and egg man is the victim of gold-diggers. Let the chickens keep to their coop! On to the fight, butter and egg men of America!

The next comedian who gets off that joke about the big butter and egg man in Florida's pantry should be greeted with a barrage of cold-storage eggs.

TIMES OF TESTING.

It was presumption, perhaps, to find fault with the methods of Pola Negri, screen star, who, in entering into a trial betrothal with Rudolph Valentino, screen sheik, is acting, as she says, upon the knowledge gained from a rich and varied experience with men. The idea in the trial betrothal is for the betrothed pair to separate for four months and see if love survives the strain. If it fails to survive separation then it could not be depended upon to stand the wear and tear of association. If it does, the risks and vicissitudes of matrimony may, with a reasonable degree of assurance, be assumed.

As it seems to her now, Valentino is "the supreme man," and she loves him very deeply, but she is not perfectly sure that it will last. If, after four months in Berlin, with the wide ocean between them, she still feels the same, and has reason to believe that he still feels the same, why then they will get married.

Perhaps Pola knows what she is talking about, and for her and Rudolph it may be the best test, but there is another idea prevalent, to the effect that presence is a greater test than absence. If, after four months of association, she should find her sheik endurable, then it might be safe to become Mrs. Sheik for life.

SPARE RUSSIA THE TRUTH.

The bolshevik press has been printing absurd stories of impossible happenings in America. One of the dispatches published in Moscow stated that an American Judge was considering two bribe offers which would affect his decision in the case of a man condemned to death. An insurance company which held a policy on the man's life wished his sentence commuted to imprisonment, but the prospective widow wanted the supreme penalty carried out because she would receive the insurance. Both the prospective widow and the insurance company had offered bribes, and the decision, according to the Moscow paper, depended upon the highest bid.

Another preposterous yarn circulated among the simple Russians had to do with annual pogroms which we wicked Americans inflict on our Chinese residents. During these outbreaks, the correspondent stated, we pounce upon Chinese and beat them severely. Now, of course, it does no harm to have the Russian press distort palpable falsehoods. But we should do our best to keep the truth about us from them.

For instance, that gentle little massaging which a band of 100-per-centers administered to a white man at Tampa, Fla., the other day, because he planned to divorce his wife, might be construed wrongly in Russia. We can imagine a communistic writer making quite a barbarous exhibition out of it. Here in St. Louis there are several truths which must be kept out of the Russian papers. What would a vicious scandalmonger in Moscow make of the case of Joseph McDowell, whose jaw was fractured while being entertained at police headquarters? And just think what an evil-minded Russian would do with the Wall-Miller controversy. He'd be sure to see something wrong in that $5000 campaign contribution.

FIVE YEARS OF TALK.

The House resolution to appoint a joint congressional committee of six members to negotiate a lease of Muscle Shoals to private interests has been approved, with three amendments, by the Senate. Instead of "a lease" the committee is instructed to negotiate "a lease or leases." Another amendment imposes an operating condition. The vital amendment, however, is that which changes the date of April 1, as designated by the House resolution, on which the committee was to report, to April 26. This change of date, as our Washington correspondent explains, probably precludes action in the present session of Congress, which is scheduled to adjourn early in June.

Senator Norris of Nebraska, who has led the fight in the Senate against turning over this property to any private interest, is encouraged by the Senate's latest action. By authorizing a committee to negotiate a lease or leases to the Senate, he argues, has not committed itself to accepting the committee's report. He feels the Senate will be critical of any disposition of this property, even though the plan have the President's sanction. Mr. Norris, apparently, has recovered from the depression of a few weeks ago, when he was reported as ready to quit this fight, and is again prepared to give battle.

Win or lose, Senator Norris must be credited with having made a good fight. It was Norris who, braving the wrath of the farmer, boldly attacked Henry Ford's offer for the plant and exposed the blue-sky character of Ford's bid. In the rejection of subsequent proposals, notably the one championed by Senator Underwood, Mr. Norris took a leading part.

But something must be done with Muscle Shoals. Obstructionism will never solve the problem. Senator Norris will, of course, agree to that. He must realize, too, that the country may reasonably be impatient with the incapacity Congress has shown in this issue.

It is now almost five years since Mr. Ford made his first bid. The exact date was July 8, 1921. Surely sufficient time has elapsed for Congress to know what it ought to do with this immense property, to have determined the conditions upon which it would lease it to private interests, and, failing in that, to have settled upon Government operation. If Muscle Shoals, in full development, will be the industrial bonanza it has been pictured the inaction of Congress in this project has cost the country heavily.

The five-year failure at Muscle Shoals is chargeable to the Republican party. As the party of business ability which it proclaims itself to be, it is high time it proceeded to do its stuff at Muscle Shoals.

TWO KINDS OF ECONOMY.

It is announced from Washington that under the 1926 Federal income tax law, by reason of the increased exemptions, the names of 2,600,000 out of approximately 8,000,000, will be eliminated from the Federal tax lists.

It seems strange, however, in view of the stressing of "Coollidge economy," that no word comes from Washington concerning any corresponding reduction being contemplated in the number of office holders employed in the Treasury Department in the collection of the Federal revenue.

When Jefferson suppressed the whole internal revenue in 1801, we learn from Francis W. Hirst's new biography that "he looked upon unnecessary officials as parasites; and he took a double delight in suppressing taxes and collectors of taxes simultaneously." Nearly half of the Government patronage was thus abolished.

"Coollidge economy" and "Jefferson economy" seem to be quite different things.

SCOTS WHA HAE—

Now is Scotland no longer Scotland. Scots are no longer Scots. Evil days have come. The pipes have fallen into disfavor. They are spoken of as "national noises." Steps have been taken to have them suppressed. In Glasgow town there is a Highlanders' Institute, where from time to time are held dances and entertainments. At such times, as the fashion is, the skirl of the bagpipes makes known to all who may be near or even fairly far that Scots are taking their pleasure in their Scottish way.

It happens that a hotel is near the institute and guests have complained of the "national noises" that come from the highlanders' merrymaking far into the night. And not only these, but residents whose homes are near have found the fault that, although the pipes are altogether proper at proper times, they are not proper at all hours of the night. So landlords and householders have joined in petitioning the court to put a stop to the noises and give the neighbors a chance to sleep.

All of which seems strange. For when, before, has a Scot had the wish to sleep when the pipes were playing? And when before has it been a hardship for Scots to listen to "national noises"? Can it be that jazz has come to Glasgow, displacing the pipes because they do not lend themselves to syncope? Whatever the cause, the condition is grievous. For Scotland is not Scotland and Scots are not Scots without the skirling of the pipes.

NOT HARD TO MAKE OUT.

O, have you seen the west sky,
All beautiful with fire,
And found in it at evening
The sum of heart's desire?
What all of us are sick for
And would the day might bring With every sunrise
Or that is, Spring?

Beyond the smoking chimneys,
The steeples and the town,
O, have you seen how brilliantly
The sun goes down
An augury of something Still fresh and heartening
For all its repetitions
You guessed it—Spring.

A man out in the country
You think must take it hard
To have the sun at evening
Bright upon his yard—
It never seems so near us
And all things coloring
So softly as at this time,
You said it—Spring.

A writer in Good Housekeeping makes an interesting suggestion about courtship. He thinks young people who are about to discover that they were made for one another ought to talk less about nothing and more about economics. Once they get married it is their respective notions about money that are going to determine their happiness. He thinks the man ought therefore to pay less attention to how the girl looks in blue than to how easily she spends money. So, too, ought the girl to know less about the man's antecedents and more about his thrift. This is a very material world, and the writer thinks more marriages are wrecked by dissimilar notions about money than come to grief for all other reasons combined. He says there are some people who ought never to marry, and do so only at the cost of their own happiness and that of their mates. That is, they do not know the value of money. This is all quite true, but can something be done about it? Or if something could be done about it, would we do it? Of course not. We cannot do anything about even eugenics. No people ever did, so far as we know, except the Spartans. They used to take a child when it was born and exhibit it before a commission of scientists, who determined whether it should be raised or put to death. That sort of thing belongs to perfection, which is what the writer in Good Housekeeping is talking about. It is what a lot of misguided people talk about, and we are not equal to perfection. We are capable of only something far short of that, and if you read the history of Sparta you find your affection for something far short of that considerably strengthened. The world is usually about right. It looks wrong when you first look at it, but look at it again.

After all the unsuccessful attempts satisfactorily to define socialism, in which persons of the eminence of Carl Marx, Nikolai Lenin, H. G. Wells and Mr. Shaw have at some time participated, Washington has a very good one. Socialism is public ownership of whatever pays.

ANENT THE COLONEL'S MEMOIRS.

The reading public at least has one consolation. Supposing the Colonel's pen could travel as fast as his tongue must have, what with all of those conferences, consultations, interviews, etc., he tells us about.

—Mud City (Ok.) Sentinel.

Course, we appreciate Col. House's efforts in behalf of peace, but it seems to us that mediation, just as charity, begins at home. Cal ought to send him to Chicago to see what can be done with the situation there.

—Pittsburg Morning Gargle.

When it comes to mopping up messes and dusting away difficulties, the Colonel is the man for the job. He's some porter House, we'll say.

—East Alton Grab-Bag.

Being a porter-house, maybe that's why most of the Democrats in the Senate have got the Colonel on the pan, eh?

Hackensack Evening Trumpet.

What kind of a pan is it—aluminum?

Dago Hill Star.

Pretty punk, that one. But if they've got the Colonel on the pan, he sure must be a hot-house.

—Des Moines Bee.

After hearing all those criticisms about his memoirs, we'll say that he must be a pretty mad-house.

Crazy one, that. After all, the Colonel did what all men of prominence commit sooner or later; scribble down their memoirs before they kick the bucket. They can't do it after they're dead and gone, you know.

Ouch! We don't think a quart of adrenalin could infect any life into that last one.

WRITTEN AFTER HEARING ROLAND HAYES SING.

Our fathers gave their lives that these might live—
These darker folk among us yet not of us—
Might live as free men, free to rise and win
The honors that our mother country holds
For all her sons—and for her stepsons, too.
But we, forgetting that for which they died,
Have bound again these helpless, struggling ones

With chains more strong than those our fathers broke—
Of prejudice and lack of love or faith,
And disbelief in their ability
To rise or win, denying them the hope—
That we ourselves would never live without—
Of progress and a brighter future.
Yet.

Tonight, spellbound, entranced, compelled by song,
That common bond of every race and kind,
Both white and black sit side by side at last,
Together, indiscriminately mixed,
To render homage to the perfect art
Of one who rose and won; and more will rise
To rise or win, denying them the hope—
That we ourselves would never live without—
Of progress and a brighter future.
Yet.

Our fathers' lives will not have been in vain
Who first gave hope.

Perchance this power of song
Shall open doors of opportunity
And Orpheus-like shall still the tongues of hate
And burst the numbing chains of prejudice.
Till future ages looking back shall say:
"Whereas the Proclamation gave them life,
'Twas their own gift of song that made them free."

FOR HIGH-CLASS LEGISLATION.

From the St. Joseph News Press.

CANDIDATES are announcing for the higher State offices. Within a month or so, no doubt, candidates for the State Legislature will declare themselves, and it will then be too late to accomplish a great deal in the way of persuading suitable candidates to enter. Realizing the need of a better Legislature in Illinois, public-spirited groups of citizens in Chicago launched an organized movement last December to induce properly qualified persons to run for the Assembly. To be successful such a movement must get an early start. So long as the field is vacant it might not be difficult to persuade a responsible business man, professional man, artisan or farmer to run the race, but with a self-inspired candidate already announced, and the certainty of a bitter fight, the prospect would be unattractive to the average man of affairs. Before the direct primary such a matter could have been arranged through the political parties. Now the parties cannot say who shall run and who shall not run. It is up to the individual. So the only way the community can express itself adequately is through such voluntary action as that at Chicago. Missouri has as much at stake as Illinois. Several forward-looking movements of vital importance to the State are contemplated, and unless they are to fail, the quality of the Legislature must be improved. The question is: Can St. Joseph, and other Missouri communities, command the services of the necessary public-spirited groups?

AMERICAN PRIMA DONNAS.

From the Washington Star.

THERE is distinct encouragement in the remarkable success of Marion Talley, the young American singer who is gifted with natural talents and inspired by ambition. There is no prejudice against the American voice in favor of the foreign voice. The present achievement proves that. Perhaps pride in a "home product" has had something to do with the extraordinary success of this young woman. But, after all, the light forward-looking movements of vital importance to the State are contemplated, and unless they are to fail, the quality of the Legislature must be improved. The question is: Can St. Joseph, and other Missouri communities, command the services of the necessary public-spirited groups?

PENILESS 50 YEARS AGO, LEAVES $869,234

John B. Heydt, Immigrant Baker's Boy, Made Money in Real Estate.

John B. Heydt, 71 years old, wholesale baker, came to St. Louis penniless 50 years ago. An inventory of his estate, filed in Probate Court yesterday, showed he had accumulated a fortune of $869,234 before his death last October 22. Heydt had been apprenticed to a baker in Hannover, Germany, and when he came to St. Louis at the age of 14 he sought employment as truck-driver for a baker. Later he came to St. Louis, started his own shop, and invested his profits in real estate, in later years even promoting a huge irrigated land project in the West. The value of his real estate holdings, as appraised in yesterday's inventory, is $40,040.

In 1907 Heydt sold the plant of the Heydt Bakery Co., Sixteenth and Biddle streets, to the American Bakery Co. for $700,000. He is said to have lost about $250,000 when the Blue Bird Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis, manufacturer of washing machines, failed in the business depression of 1920, but he afterwards recouped this loss. The inventory shows that he had invested in securities to the extent of $259,324.72.

Among these securities are stock in the Continental Baking Corporation, $139,600; in the Smith Great Western Baking Corporation, $80,000; in the Purities Baking Corporation, $25,000; in the Harsh Brothers Co., $123,200; in the United Railways Co., $20,000; in the Robinson Fire Apparatus Co., $20,000; in the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., $10,750; and in the Independent Breweries Co., $8,000. Heydt also held $125,206.33 in notes, of which $125,000 were executed by the Robinson Fire Apparatus Co., of which Heydt's son, Renard L. Heydt, is president.

Cash to the amount of $18,453.33, chattels to the extent of $229.80, and miscellaneous items $631.23 also were listed in the inventory, which was filed by the executor and the Mercantile Trust Co. as executors under the will.

Heydt bequeathed one-third of his estate to his widow, Mrs. Helen Heydt, 4530 Forest Park boulevard, and the remainder to his son, who lives at Normandy, Mo.

CENTRE COLLEGE HEAD RESIGNED

Former St. Louis Pastor Incurrs Opposition of Student Body.

By the Associated Press.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 10.—Dr. Ames Montgomery, president of Centre College, Danville, Ky., has resigned. Trustees said the resignation was voluntary. Students of the college presented a petition to the board last December demanding that the president be removed, charging with W. H. Carter, business manager, Carter's alleged resignation, but it was not accepted. Failure of the Centre College to continue an outstanding football team was said to be among the reasons for the students' dissatisfaction with Dr. Montgomery. These reports subsequently were denied. Dr. Montgomery came to Centre from Parsons College, at Fairfield, Ia.

Dr. Montgomery was pastor of the Tyler Place Presbyterian Church in St. Louis from November, 1925, to September, 1925. He came here with his wife and four daughters from Ottumwa, Ia., where he had been active in church work. He resigned from the Tyler Place church to accept the presidency of Parsons College.

FIDDLER NO. 9 IN RADIO CONTEST WAS ONLY A GIRL

Columbia, Mo., Child Plays by Ear, Tunes Her Father and His Cronies "Fiddle."

JEFFERSON CITY.—Many persons who voted for fiddler No. 9 in the recent fiddlers' contest conducted from radio station WOS perhaps had visions of a gray-bearded old man in the eighties grinding out old-time tunes with the patting of a faithful foot. Now comes the news that the fiddler was not a man at all.

Instead of an aged patriarch the player was a 9-year-old school girl, Leone Lantz of Columbia, formerly of Independence. The child does not know a note of music and plays the "fiddle" by ear. Her father is an old-time fiddler and he has a lot of cronies who engage in the same pastime. The little girl has learned to play by being around these old men and listening to their tunes, such as "Wash up the Dish," "Irish Wash Woman," "Pop Goes the Weasel," "Arkansas Traveler" and many other old favorites.

SCHOOL TAX RALLY

ATTENDED BY 1500

Former Judge Sale Addresses Meeting at Soldan High in Interest of 85-Cent Rate.

The failure of the 85-cent tax rate for public schools at the special election March 23 would automatically result in the closing of many schools, the suspension of all school building activities and a reduction in teachers' salaries, declared Richard Murphy, of the Board of Education, in an address at the Walnut Park School, 5814 Thekla avenue, last night.

The meeting was one of two held last night in the interest of a four-year renewal of the 85-cent rate. On the program with Murphy were Stephen M. Wagner, a school board member, and Henry J. Gerling, assistant superintendent of instruction.

1500 Persons at Rally.
At Soldan High School former Judge Moses N. Sale addressed a voters' rally of about 1500 persons. Other meetings were scheduled for nearly every night of the 12 remaining until the election.

The speakers point out that failure to get a majority vote on the 85-cent tax proposition would cause a reversion to the 60-cent rate in effect four years ago when a similar election was held. They express confidence in the result of the vote but stress the danger of failure because of apathy on the part of voters in favor of a continuance of the rate.

Meetings Tomorrow.
Tomorrow evening another voters' rally will be held at Yeatman High School, and an "open house" program is announced for Cupples School, 4908 Cote Brillante avenue. The formal opening and dedication of the new Beaumont High School will be at the time. The night and the program will include several speakers for the tax. About 20 grade schools have announced "open house" for various nights.

At the School Board meeting last night it was decided to rent the Odeon Theater for Friday evening, March 19, for a mass meeting for teachers in the interest of the tax election. Communications from more than 50 organizations endorsing the 85-cent rate were read at the meeting.

WOMAN'S WILL, WRITTEN BY HERSELF, TIES UP BEQUESTS

Former New Thought League Officer Sought to Simplify Disposal of Estate.

An attempt to make her death last Monday, of Miss Paulina Kuntze, 505 Newstead avenue, former associate manager of the St. Louis New Thought League, to draw up a will so simple it could be settled with a minimum of inconvenience to her friends, has resulted in a document so obscure that deputies in the Probate Court do not know if she made a disposition of her estate or not.

In it she stated that, in accordance with her practices and principles of simplicity, she desired to make all matters easy for those friends remaining on earth, she had dispensed with legal formulas, including the employment of a notary, and left her entire estate in the charge of a friend and associate, Miss Harriet Hulick, also of the Newstead address. But her wording is such that, according to the Court, she merely appointed Miss Hulick executor.

The estate consists of deeds of trust and German bonds. These latter are now being liquidated by the Mixed Claims Commission.

BERGER APPEALS TO COOLIDGE TO RESTORE DEBS' CITIZENSHIP

Asserts, After Conference at White House, He Has Reason to Believe Action Will Be Taken.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—After a talk today with President Coolidge, Representative Berger, Socialist, Wisconsin, said he had "good reason to believe" that the President would restore the rights of an American citizen to Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist leader.

When Debs was released from Atlanta Penitentiary after serving part of a term imposed as a result of his utterances during the war, his citizenship rights were not restored.

He now is planning a visit to Bermuda, and although no passport is required for such a trip, he has been fearful that objection might be made to his return to American shores. Representative Berger interceded with the President today on behalf of the Socialist leader. White House officials declined to predict what action would be taken.

Jim Reed, the Orator, Uses Howell's Mass. of Dull Figures and Makes The Senate Sit Up and Take Notice

Happening in Recent Debate on the Tax Bill Shows the Speaker Who Is Articulate Is the One Who Wins Debates.

BY CHARLES G. ROSS, Chief Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—One cannot sit in the Senate gallery very long without realizing the immense importance, to a Senator, of being articulate. The men who make themselves felt in debate are the men who can speak. However able a Senator may be, however well-informed on the subject under discussion, he is under a tremendous handicap if he cannot rise in his place, as the Senators say, and put his thoughts into flowing English.

These observations are suggested by recent happenings in the Senate. While the tax bill was being debated, Senator Howell of Nebraska, a Republican with independent leanings, armed himself with a formidable mass of facts and figures, showing just how the bill would work to the advantage of millionaire taxpayers. Howell had dug out his data at the expense of much time and effort.

Being a civil engineer by profession and having an inquiring scientific turn of mind, Howell knows how to do work of that sort. In this case he had done a particularly thorough and workmanlike job. His figures completely exploded the contention that the benefits of the bill were distributed among the taxpayers.

But Howell's extremely valuable contribution to the debate made but little impression. For all the attention he got, he might as well have read an extract from "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire." Only a few Senators took any notice of his facts and figures at the time. The gallery got the impression merely of an earnest man reading some dry statistics.

Reed Took the Reins.
Howell speaks moderately well, but oratory simply isn't in his line. He came to the Senate without the lawyer's training that forms the background of the great majority of his colleagues. And figures, as every public speaker knows, are hard to "put across" to an audience. On this occasion, at any rate, they fell flat, and but for their preservation in the Congressional Record, that much-maligned but invaluable journal of Congress, Howell's labor in compiling them would have gone for almost nothing.

Fortunately they were preserved. And, fortunately, they came to the attention of Senator Reed of Nebraska, Howell's colleague in the Senate. Taking Howell's figures without change, and giving the Nebraskan due credit for having first presented them to the Senate, Reed used them as the basis of a withering attack on the coalition tax bill.

The gallery came to life, and Senators appeared from the cloak-rooms to listen. There was nothing new in what Reed said about the tax bill and the surrender of the Democrats, but he said it in a way to compel attention. Scorn, invective, sarcasm, poured from him in a devastating stream. Oratory, pure and simple, rescued Howell's statistics from oblivion and gave them the place they deserved in the debate.

Couzens' Conquering Timidity.
Senator Couzens of Michigan, an able man and hard worker, is another whose influence in the Senate would be larger if he had the gift of facile speech. When Couzens came into the Senate he was obviously ill at ease whenever he got up to speak. Life Howell, he had no training in the law. To enter the lists against the legal technicians of the Senate was a fearsome adventure.

Couzens has gradually conquered his timidity and improved his manner of delivery until today he is able to take care of himself fairly well in debate. But he has still some distance to go before he can get the fullest possible results from his labors. He did, for example, a herculean piece of work in his investigation of the Internal Revenue Bureau. The disclosures, without any oratorical embroidery, were important and timely enough to get attention both on the Senate floor and in the newspapers.

Couzens made good use of them. It is nevertheless true that if some Senator of marked oratorical power, like Reed or Borah, had undertaken to present and illuminate the Couzens' disclosures, the effect both on the Senate and the public would have been much greater.

Articulation Counts.
The point of these observations is this: That the contempt frequently expressed for Senatorial oratory is based on a profound fallacy. A lot of the speech-making, of course, is mere wind, but it doesn't follow that the tongue-tied Senator is a more useful public servant than the one who can talk. It doesn't follow that a business man is necessarily a better man for the public to elect to the Senate, or any other legislative body, than a lawyer. With a few conspicuous exceptions, due largely to long service, the business men in the Senate are overshadowed by the lawyers. The reason for this is not only that the lawyers are in the majority; it is also that they are more articulate.

SAYS RELIGION SAVES MEN FROM BECOMING MACHINES

Lenten Speaker Deplores Practice of Industrial Concerns in Knowing Workers Only by Numbers.

"Religion saves man from becoming a machine," declared the Rev. Albert Muntsch, S. J., professor of sociology at St. Louis University, in a noon-day Lenten address at the Church of the Annunciation, Sixth and La Salle streets, yesterday.

"Modern civilization has reduced many workers to mere cogs in the vast industrial machine," Father Muntsch said. "In some large concerns workers are numbered and are scarcely considered as human personalities. The saddest attitude is that the world has gotten away from the salutary teaching of mother church that every individual has certain fundamental rights and privileges. All men are equal in the dignity of their construction, and also alike in their ultimate destiny, eternally."

The address was one of a series of sermons by Father Muntsch at the Church of the Annunciation this week.

MILLER VOTE COST HIS HOME; NO JOB NOW

Former Deputy Marshal, Who Was Fired, Complains of His Plight.

George Cunningham, a former Deputy City Marshal, told the Legislative Committee of the Board of Aldermen yesterday how he had supported Victor J. Miller for Mayor, "even though my father-in-law kicked me out of his house," and how 10 months later the Miller administration kicked him out of his job.

It was just one of the several recitals by six former marshals who were relieved recently after they complied with Marshal Duffy's request for resignations.

"Why, I voted for Miller at the primary and lost my home on account of it," Cunningham said.

"Somebody said I was bootlegging, but I was only an amateur better man," he said.

Otto Niemuth, another ex-Deputy, testified that a prisoner in his custody, expressed appreciation for his courteous treatment and insisted, after release in giving him $2 "to buy cigars."

"So I was fired," he said. "The other day I saw a Marshal in good standing take $2 and told him to look out. But this is for cigarettes," he told me. Maybe that's all right."

The committee will meet next Tuesday to examine the men Duffy has appointed to succeed the 12 men he discharged.

My father-in-law kicked me out of the house because of it and my wife and I had to live with friends until I was able to pay $500 on another place. Now I haven't even got a job. I was fired because I helped Adolph Hartmann, another deputy, serve some papers on a day he was ill."

E. J. Rubelling, in politics long enough to learn that he must accommodate at all hazards, said he used to get butter from the country, pack it up in the back room of the Marshal's office and deliver it to friends "just to be accommodating."

Wash Face?—Yes

But mind what sort of soap you use

Take care that you use only such soap as is made solely to protect the complexion, then always according to this simple rule.

FOREMOST skin authorities urge washing the face regularly as essential to natural complexion clearness. But all urge greatest care in selecting the kind of soap one uses.

Risking a precious complexion to an unproven soap is a folly. The only kind of soap to use on your face is a soap made solely to safeguard the complexion. Launder and cleanse with any soap you wish. But when beauty is at stake, take care.

The accepted skin care of today starts largely with Palmolive, a soap made of rare cosmetic oils, a soap made for one purpose only—to be used freely and lavishly on the skin.

The rule in skin care Experts urge is this: Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge, if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Get real Palmolive. Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive.

It costs but 10c the cake!—so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Then note what an amazing difference one week makes. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.), Chicago, Illinois.

NEW TORCH MELTS STEEL UNDER WATER

Invention Will Be Used to Open Hull of Submarine Now on Ocean Floor.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, March 10.—A torch of the submarine S-51, now on the floor of the ocean off Block Island, Commander Ellsberg of the Brooklyn navy yard has told a reporter for the New York World.

Such a torch is hailed as a valuable aid in cutting through the steel plates of submarines and submarine compartments. It was the lack of an adequately powerful torch that prevented the piercing of the submarine S-51 last fall, after it was rammed amidships by the steamer City of Rome in September. At that time acetylene torches were used, and they were practically useless when torched to a pressure of more than 20 pounds under water.

The new torch consists of a jet of hydrogen and oxygen which emanate from two separate sleeves to the tip of the torch. From a third sleeve comes compressed air. When the compressed air is applied at any depth under water it forces an air bubble to surround the hydrogen and oxygen. This protects the torch from the water, the fire within the bubble of air is injected into the steel. It usually reaches a temperature of 5000 degrees Fahrenheit, according to Commander Ellsberg.

The steel plate melts. From the time the flame is applied the steel plate, usually an inch thick or less on submarines, can be cut at the rate of a foot a minute.

The navy has been experimenting on the torch for several years. When the submarine S-51 sank, the torch was in the experimental stage.

With the aid of the torch, it will be possible to get into the innermost compartments of the submarine. Holes will be burned in the hull of the submarine, as well as in the walls of the compartments, and the compressed air will be forced into the boat, thus driving out the water and making the craft more buoyant.

The bodies of 24 men are still in the submarine, it is believed, and these will be taken out probably before the submarine is lifted to the surface.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
PIKEVILLE, Ky., March 10.—Protection supposed to be given by Kentucky's antigossip law having failed her, Mrs. M. M. Coleman took the matter into her own hands, it is alleged, and shot her brother-in-law, Ernest Coleman, five times at her home on Greasy Creek. She was arrested.

Ernest Coleman was acquitted recently of a charge of gossiping brought by his sister-in-law.

Last fall Ernest Coleman told his brother, M. M. Coleman, that Mrs. Coleman, who is a mountain school teacher, was living a dual life. The brothers opened fire on each other, but neither was hurt.

Kentucky's antigossip law provides severe penalties and requires persons accused to furnish names of persons from whom they obtained reports.

THE INTIMATE PAPERS OF COL. HOUSE

forts of President Wilson to begin peace negotiations received scant attention in allied countries as well as in Germany.

"Germany wants a peace conference," Gerard wrote to House on Jan. 9. "In order to make a separate peace, on good terms to them, with France and Russia. Then she hopes to finish England with submarines, then later take the scalps of Japan, Russia and France separately. The allies ought to remember what Ben Franklin said about hanging together or separately. I get the above scheme from very good authority."

The allies challenged Wilson's analogy between the war aims of the two groups, insisting that the attitude of the Central powers was a menace to humanity and civilization. They met Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms by an uncompromising declaration which won the approval of American opinion on the Atlantic coast, but which seemed to end the possibility of negotiations.

"The dominant tone," wrote Page to House, "in public and private comment on the President's suggestion is surprise and sorrowful consternation and all public comment so far is visibly restrained. . . . The President's suggestion itself would have provoked little or no criticism if it had been made at another time. But his remarks accompanying his suggestion are interpreted as placing the allies and the Central Powers on the same level. . . . A luncheon guest at the palace yesterday informs me that the King wept while he expressed surprise and depression."

In Chapter 40 tomorrow President Wilson refuses to be drawn into the war. Germany decides to renew submarine warfare and dictates terms upon which it would discuss peace.

BIG LACLEDE STOCK PROFIT IF VALUE IS $70,000,000

Shares Bought by Charles
A. Munroe in 1924 at $104.25 Would Be Worth $345.

$14,000,000 GAIN FOR PURCHASERS
City Puts Him on Stand to Get Light on Whether He Bought Securities for Speculation.

By WILLIAM F. ALLEN,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 10.—
If the Laclede Gas Light Co. should succeed, as it is attempting, in gaining a valuation of $70,000,000 for rate-making purposes in St.
Louis, stock by which Charles A.
Munroe gained control of the company in 1924, by paying $104.25 a share, would be given a value of approximately $345 a share.

If Munroe should sell at that figure he and his associates would gain a profit of approximately $14,000,000. Munroe's personal profit would approach $6,000,000, for he owns, through a holding company, approximately 34 per cent of the outstanding Laclede common stock.

However, a valuation of $70-000,000 is highly improbable, though the company for five weeks has earnestly contended that it is entitled to that sum.

Profit at $55,000,000 Figure.
It is certain that the company will not be satisfied with less than $55,000,000 and may not accept that figure. If it should obtain $55,000,000, its common stock would be given a value based upon property behind it of $205 a share.
In that case Munroe, if he could sell, would obtain a profit of more than $6,000,000 to himself and associates. His own profit would exceed $2,000,000.

Munroe, in conversations preceding this hearing, has said that if the company obtained the valuation to which it is entitled, its common stock would be worth $250 a share.
A valuation of $60,000,000 would accomplish that price.

In contrast to the company figures, the City of St. Louis is proposing a valuation of $38,000,000, which would permit the company to pay its operating and fixed charge and yield a 7 per cent return on par value of common stock.
This would be slightly less than a 7 per cent return on the actual investment made by Munroe and his associates. The company asserts that the only task of the commission is to determine how much property the company has in service of the public and value of that property.

The Company's Attitude.
The company's position is that if Munroe made a "smart buy" that is his good fortune, but that the fact he got something for less than its worth does not alter that worth.
Munroe was placed upon the stand by the city yesterday and today in the hearing before the Public Service Commission to throw light, if he chose, upon whether as has been frequently intimated, his investment in Laclede was purely speculative and if when the valuation has been set, he will pocket his profit and depart.

In his examination yesterday Munroe finished a statement of why he sought control of Laclede and how he obtained it.

He was somewhat surprised when the city called him to the stand, but made a ready and frank witness, revealing some portions of a career that in 14 years has carried him into scores of utilities scattered through 10 states. He testified that in that period he has become interested in between 30 and 40 gas plants. It is known that he also is interested in a large number of electric plants, but he did not give the number.

The city closed its case with the testimony of Munroe. The commission engineers and accountants now will set forth their estimates and theories of the valuation.

A Student of Valuation.
Munroe has legal residence in Chicago. His family spends some time annually in California, he is a yearly visitor to Florida, but since 1924 he has spent most of his time in St. Louis. Though a logical figure of public interest, he has become little known. The circle of his acquaintances as yet is small.
He has been absorbed—completely—in this business of valuation. He painted the elevator shafts of the company's office building as his first act, after taking the reins, for he wants his public utilities to be tidy. But, first, he wants their financial structure to be tidy, and nothing has diverted him from that task.

He has driven forward unceas-ingly. During the five weeks this hearing has been in progress he has sat at his counsel's elbow, he

YOU HAVE formed the habit of making weekly or monthly pay-regular payments, and this can be useful to you if you will adopt the following plan: Start now, and buy $500 or $1,000, or any amount of money you want and can afford to buy, on easy weekly or monthly payments. Select one of the plans suggested below or tell us how much you want and we'll suggest other plans. Then open a Mercantile Savings Account and deposit the most convenient amount at the most conven-this big difference: You'll be earning interest instead of paying interest.

Says He Felt Drunk

Most of the Time
Brooklyn. Mr. Fred G. Marquart writes: "I felt drunk most of the time. My head was dizzy. I couldn't think clearly. One day I dropped a coin and when I stooped to get it I got so dizzy I almost fell. I later found out that the cause of this condition was constipation. This was overcome by a short course of Carter's Little Liver Pills. My appetite has doubled, and my dizziness has entirely left me." Carter's Little Liver Pills move the bowels and relieve the system of its poisonous matter. Druggists, 25¢ and 75¢ red packages.

Big Profit in Laclede Stock If Valuation Is $70,000,000

prompts questions. He seizes upon holes in the city's evidence with avidity, with sound perception and an amazing intimate knowledge of every stick of the property. He leaves the hearing room less frequently than any of the 25 other interested persons, including the commissioners. He has listened to no show of ennuj. He is the self-appointed sergeant-at-arms. He rounds up the company witnesses and gets them in their places on the minute for reconvening after adjournments or recesses. He permits no interruption of his concentration of the business in hand. He walks in the morning and at night to be fit for the day's business. When he talks, it is of the day's testimony or the plan for the morning. He challenges city witnesses in the hotel, showing them the error of their way, as he sees it.

A Power at 45.

Obviously he is a seeker after money. He already is a power in the public utility field—at 45—and he seems to be just getting under way. To him the pursuit of money is an occupation, the game to which he has dedicated his life. He seems to have little use for money itself.

His tastes are simple. When rooms were engaged for this long stay in a Jefferson City hotel, the best in the house was set aside for him. He declined it and took a plain, almost forbidding room. In the St. Louis Country Club in a room of almost priestly severity. He makes the drive to his office in an open and inexpensive roadster, so as to arrive regularly at a quarter before 8 o'clock. He returns to the club for solitary dinner and permits only extraordinary circumstances to interfere. His views on religion and the uncertain virtues of life are homely, old-fashioned, orthodox.

He plays golf and indulges in other sports, but as part of his mission in life. Golf and exercise keep him in physical condition. In the sense of dinners and dances and "affairs," detract from the sleekness of well being and he shuns them. Frequently he imposes restrictions upon his habits, such as smoking. He quits because it makes him "feel better."

Munroe is a lawyer. He practiced two years in Chicago. He was not unlike countless other beginners in the law. Clients were scarce, but in the public utility business he was a "success" from the start.

A law case involving riparian rights brought under his eye a power site on the Des Plaines river just outside Chicago. He found that for $100,000 he could obtain options on the land necessary to develop the site. In those days, $100,000 was a more forbidding sum than the sum required to take control of Laclede. After search he found an acquaintance who would furnish money in exchange for a half interest in the project. The partnership sold out for $2,100,000. Thereupon the law lost Munroe.

More recent years his activity has been buying up small public utilities and tying them together under holding companies. He has extended operations of this nature to Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, New Hampshire, Vermont and Connecticut. As his prize accomplishment he holds the fact that he became vice president of the Peoples Gas Light Co. in Chicago at a time when, he says, its condition was comparable to Laclede in the years of the war. Its stock, which had been at par, slumped to 27 under high operating costs and inadequate rates. When he left Peoples Gas, its stock had passed par again. He points out that Laclede has a similar war chapter and he frankly says that he will pull it back.

Munroe is not even well known to his subordinate officers of the Laclede. He is not secretive, but he rarely talks about himself, so when he took the stand yesterday a tense hush fell upon the room and city, company and commission strained for his every word.

His Story of Buying Laclede.
He related how and why he took over Laclede, in substance, as follows:

Harriman & Co., New York brokers, said to him in 1924 that they could assemble what they considered a working control of Laclede, and gave him 30 days in which to say "yes" or "no." He went to St. Louis and combed the company records. He inspected its operating costs and said he found them to be the lowest among the gas plants of the country. He likewise found rates to be the lowest, he said. He went over every item of property. He consulted St. Louis bankers. He interviewed the City Counselor. He asked everyone he met if there was any good reason why he should buy Laclede. He asked about the company's standing. He made sure he said that it was not entangled in politics.

Munroe's fine-tooth comb is fine. Indeed. He did the job in 30 days and told Harriman & Co. that he would pay 104½ for enough Laclede common to establish a working control.

At that time Laclede bonds were selling for $5 to $5.50. Preferred stock was $0, and common 77½. Common has been 173 during the last year. Harriman & Co. attempted to buy in at 92½, but after getting a few thousand shares came up against a stone wall and increased the price to 95½.

Obtained 53,600 Shares.
The obtained the remainder of 53,600 shares at that price and delivered them to Munroe for $5,550,000. Munroe put in $1,200,000 of his own money and took for it the entire preferred stock and 60 per cent of the common stock of a holding company he created—the Laclede Gas and Electric Co., whose assets are the common shares of Laclede, which it has raised to $1,000,000 of 107,000 shares outstanding. The remainder of the money Munroe "borrowed" from four friends, giving them $4,450,000 of bonds.

When he reached this point in his recital Munroe pointed out that if Laclede were to suffer some of the "destructive" valuations suggested at the present hearing, he would be the first to suffer.

He said he based his decision to buy chiefly upon his discovery in the company records of its sale in 1923 by North American Co. to a group of wealthy St. Louis men at a price which indicated a property value of $20,000,000. He concluded that if the company was worth $20,000,000 in 1923, it was worth

Has Chance to Make $5,000,000 on His Stock

CHARLES A. MUNROE.

In that I still am a stockholder. I bought Laclede Gas Light Co. for the sole purpose of providing an investment for myself and my associates. I have no disposition nor intention to sell the property. However, I feel sometimes when $33,000,000 is mentioned as its true value that I had better sell because, at that figure, I am ruined. With reasonable treatment I don't want to sell."

Counselor Munroe then asked Munroe what the gas rate in St. Louis would be at 8 per cent return on $70,000,000, for which the company is contending. To this Munroe replied: "The city has calculated that the rate would be $1.40. That is mathematically correct, but economically inaccurate."

"Such a rate would destroy this property just as quickly as some of the valuations being mentioned here. The company is a monopoly only in the sense that it is the only gas company in St. Louis supplying gas. However, it is submitted to the fiercest competition by other fuels, oil, coke and Illinois coal. Gas rates can be no higher than economically sound. If the valuation was $70,000,000 or $100,000,000, rates would be no different under the one figure than under the other. Any attempt to earn 8 per cent on the valuation we claim would be destructive."

"Why," inquired Munroe, "did the company bring Breckinridge Jones, president of the Mississippi Valley Trust Co., into this case as a witness to declare that a fair return was 8 per cent?"

Munroe replied that it was to perfect a record that might be taken into court on appeal.

Hold Up 11 in Saloon, Take $35.
Two men entered the office and saloon of the Nolte Hotel, 2330 North Jefferson avenue, at 11:30 o'clock last night, compelled the proprietor, Arthur Nolte, and 10 customers to lie down on the floor, and departed with $35 taken from the cash register.

The proper care of your teeth and gums

This is common sense!

EVERY dentist knows now that the ordinary cause of decay of the teeth is the presence of certain acids which form in the mouth. No acids, no acid decay! It is as simple as that.

Thus modern oral hygiene concerns itself with the problem of combating the acids which attack tooth enamel. How can these acids be rendered harmless? By keeping the teeth clean? Absolutely. The only catch is this: You can't keep your teeth clean.

You can clean the surfaces of your teeth, but no tooth-brush can reach in between the teeth or in the little V-shaped crevices at The Danger Line, where teeth meet gums.

That is why Squibb's Dental Cream, made with Squibb's Milk of Magnesia, was developed. Milk of Magnesia has been long known as a safe, effective antacid, and Squibb's Dental Cream contains more than 50 per cent of Squibb's Milk of Magnesia—an amount ample to neutralize dangerous mouth acids for a considerable time after use.

Thus Squibb's Dental Cream protects against decay in two ways. It cleans your teeth beautifully, and where it cannot clean it sends little particles of Milk of Magnesia to neutralize the harmful acids.

Isn't it common sense, then, to use Squibb's Dental Cream? At drug stores—40 cents a tube.

CHRONIC HEAD COLD

A Simple Method of Prevention

Nasal catarrh is not only disagreeable and offensive, but it will lead to serious trouble.

That inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of the air passages of the head, nose and throat may spread to the point where it is incurable and a danger to life.

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes are composed of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries. The warm smoke vapor is inhaled into the affected air passages and will go where sprays, douches and salves cannot reach. They contain no tobacco or cubes, and being harmless, are used by women and children, as well as men.

If you suffer from any catarrhal trouble, nasal, throat, catarrhal, deafness, or are subject to frequent colds, get from any druggist a convenient pocket-size package of Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes, and prove for yourself their pleasant, beneficial effects.

POLICEMAN INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

Department Machine and Truck in Crash—Other Accidents.

A Police Department Ford touring car turned into Kingshighway from Laclede avenue just as a five-ton truck drove north in Kingshighway at 5 a. m. today, and they collided.

Patrolman Thomas Neaf, 54 years old, of 7033 Mitchell avenue, was lifted from the wreckage of the Ford and taken to City Hospital with fractured ribs and lacerations of the scalp and face. Clarence Seibert, 3100A St. Vincent avenue, driver of the truck, was arrested.

Two men were riding on a motor cycle in front of Hotel Jefferson, Twelfth boulevard and Locust street, at 1:30 a. m. today. The driver attempted a sudden turn and the machine skidded for 75 feet, crossing a sidewalk and crashing against the hotel building.

The driver, William McGellery, 24, of 3948 Washington boulevard, was injured, but the owner, Edward Mitrucker, 2845 West Pine boulevard, who was on the rear seat, was not. McGellery was placed in a taxicab driven by George Howard, 3917 Washington, and with Mitrucker standing on the running board, the cab sped south in Twelfth boulevard on its way to city hospital.

City Detectives Grubala and Fisher in a police automobile gave chase, suspecting a holdup, but were outdistanced, and later learned what it was all about. At the hospital McGellery was found to be suffering from a fracture of the skull, brain concussion and alcoholism.

A Vandeventer street car and an automobile driven by James Rains, 45, of 2845 South Fourth street, collided at Vandeventer and Sarpy avenues last night. Rains suffered a skull fracture.

TWO MEN HELD AFTER SALE OF IMITATION WATCHES

Members of Theatrical Company Said to Have Disposed of Property as Genuine Platinum.

Two men, members of a theatrical company playing here, are held at Police Headquarters pending investigation of their operations in disposing of imitation platinum watches to jewelers and pawnbrokers at fancy prices.

They were arrested after a local jewelry firm had complained that one of them had sold it a watch for $50 which proved upon examination not to be platinum, as was stamped on its case. Later, a loan firm complained that the other had pawned a similar watch for $175.

The men told detectives the watches were made of a new alloy of white gold which had the appearance of platinum and showed up in its real quality only under an extensive acid test. Jewelers estimated that the watches were worth about $100, while platinum watches of the same description would cost $450.

ASSERTS TEXAS ROAD BOND RULING WON'T AFFECT MISSOURI

Investment Bankers' Official Believes Issues Will Be Upheld by Supreme Court.

An opinion that road district bonds issued in Missouri and neighboring states will not be affected by the decision of the United States Supreme Court holding bonds of Archer County, Tex., invalid, was expressed yesterday by Alden H. Little, chairman of the Municipal Securities Committee of the Investment Bankers' Association of America.

Little said that in a test case to be filed by Attorney-General Gentry because of the doubt raised by the decision, many issues could be raised which were barred in the Texas case because no bonds had been issued by that road district.

Little is confident the road district bond issues of Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida and Missouri would be upheld by the Supreme Court.

PETITIONS FOR THE RECALL OF MILLER SOUGHT BY WOMEN

Four Callers at Election Board Office Make Inquiries as to Necessary Procedure.

Four women who today went to the City Hall to attend the trial of Director of Public Utilities Wall on charges preferred by Mayor Miller, applied at the office of the Election Board after the trial had been postponed for petitions to circulate for the recall of Mayor Miller.

They were told by Louis Uhr, Chief Clerk of the Election Board, that recall petitions were not to be had there, but that if they were obtained elsewhere and circulated the board would receive them for filing and verify the names and addresses of signers. The women departed without giving their names.

Alcohol Found in Speeding Auto.

Detectives, who saw a Dodge coupe exceeding the speed limit in 4 p. m. yesterday, pursued the car four blocks before they crowded it to the curb. In the rear of the car they found three five-gallon cans of alcohol. The driver, Frank Monticome, 19 years old, of 1430 Blair avenue, was arrested and the automobile taken to the station.

Two Zebroid Mules Marketed. Two zebroid mules, the first of the kind ever received at the National Stockyards, were sold yesterday. Sired by a zebra, the mules are bays and have stripes similar to those of a zebra. They are six years old and each weighs about 1500 pounds. They were shipped from the stock farm of Philip Hagerman, Mount Vernon, Ind., and sold for $500 to the Ed Barnett Mule Co.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2. and yet have best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pine; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosen a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lift the phlegm, heal the membrane, and give almost immediate relief. Solid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

To avoid disappointments ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SAYS SHE IS GLAD TO ENDORSE IT

As She Feels It Her Duty to Let Others Know the Wonderful Results She Obtained From Herb Juice.

"After suffering so long as I did with stomach trouble, to say nothing of the awful dizziness and severe headaches, and in such a short time get the remarkable relief which I did from the use of your wonderful remedy, Herb Juice, I felt it my duty to make this public statement in its behalf," said Mrs. Louise Dabin, who resides at 7711 Alaska Street, St. Louis County, Missouri, in a recent conversation with the Herb Juice man.

MRS. LOUISE DABIN

In continuing her remarks, Mrs. Dabin said "I hardly knew what it was to feel good any more, because my stomach gave me so much trouble in recent years. It seemed that no matter what I ate, it would cause me the same miserable feeling from gas, and from these gas attacks I would have a splitting headache and severe dizziness. I would also have sharp shooting pains through my chest and around my heart, and I had begun to think that I had heart trouble. So severe were these pains that I could not sleep at night. I had just about become a nervous wreck when my brother-in-law, who had taken Herb Juice with such splendid results, insisted that I try it myself. And I can truthfully say since taking this great remedy for only a short time now, that it has done more for me than all the other medicines that I have ever used combined. My stomach is in excellent condition, that gnawing, bloated feeling has disappeared, I never have any more headaches or pains through my chest and around my heart, and I can now sleep peacefully and arise in the morning feeling refreshed and eager to go about my daily routine.

"My husband also takes Herb Juice and it has done equally as much for him as it has for me. He joins me in praising this great medicine to everyone we know."

Herb Juice is the biggest selling medicine on the market where it is known. Hundreds are calling daily to see the Herb Juice man at Walgreen Drug Co., 514 Washington Ave., giving statements for publication and praising Herb Juice that their friends may be induced to try the great remedy which is relieving many sufferers in St. Louis.

Statement About Moses in Bull-rushes May Cost Instructor in Bible His Job.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

EMPORIA, Kan., March 10.—With the fate of Dr. J. S. Cornett as instructor in Bible in the College of Emporia awaiting action today by trustees of the school, students are divided into two factions regarding the teacher.

The division is over a statement by Dr. Cornett that the Biblical story of Pharaoh's daughter finding Moses in the bulrushes should be taken with a grain of salt, and that college students should forget many of the stories they learned in Sunday school.

Freshman of the college, a Presbyterian institution, wrote home to their parents that an effort was being made to shake their faith in the Bible. Upper class members almost unanimously disagree with the freshman and say Dr. Cornett merely gives the liberal and the literal interpretations of biblical stories and leaves the student to choose.

"We all are for him," said Reginald Carter of Pittsburg, Kan., writing Y. M. C. A. president, football player and ministerial student. "He is the first teacher who has made the Bible respected by us and he is not teaching anything wrong. The trouble is that freshmen do not know what is going on these days. They have not learned to forget their Sunday school stories."

Dr. Cornett came to Emporia last year from the Theological Seminary in Chicago.

EVA TANGUAY MAY NOT CARE BUT GEORGIA MINSTRELS DO
Entertainers File Suit Against Delmonte Operators for $2225 for Services.

The "I Don't Care" philosophy of Eva Tanguay, who lost $1700 on a contract when the Delmonte Theater, 5730 Delmar boulevard, closed Feb. 26, is not endorsed by William Campbell of the Dupaco-Hockwald Famous Georgia Minstrels, which entertained small audiences at the Delmonte two weeks before Miss Tanguay's appearance.

In a suit against Jack Well and Ray Miller, operators of the Delmonte, he asks for $2225. He contracted to appear with his company at 14 performances beginning Feb. 6, for $2250 and 25 per cent of all receipts over $4500. His petition states: "He received $25 cash at the end of the week, he says."

Miss Tanguay contracted for $2000 for the week of Feb. 20, but settled after the final curtain rang down for $300. "The boys who operated the Delmonte took the money more than I do," she said on departing.

Companion in Liquor Party Expects Fatal Injury of Martin N. V. B. Wilcoxson.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Mysterious circumstances in the death of Martin Niles Van Buren Wilcoxson, wealthy descendant of President Martin Van Buren, were cleared by the testimony of the friend who was with Wilcoxson when he suffered the injury which caused his death. Wilcoxson died Friday night. An autopsy disclosed his skull was fractured, though he had been hooked at the hospital as suffering from alcoholism. Michael Carey, a friend, told police Wilcoxson had fallen down the steps of a restaurant in which they had been drinking together.

Carey said Wilcoxson did not realize he had been seriously hurt. Later, when Wilcoxson complained of feeling ill, he and Carey got in a taxicab and drove for some time. Carey then departed and the cab driver took Wilcoxson to a police station for medical aid.

Valentino Says He Cannot Marry Before 1930 on a Wager.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 10.—The assertions of Pola Negri that she is to marry Rudolph Valentino have failed to find confirmation on the part of the latter. He said: "We have not even discussed marriage. Both of us have lots of work ahead of us. We are not engaged. I do not like the word 'engagement.' It sounds too much like a contract one has to perform by a certain date."

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations, the bowels and gently urges this soiling waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

LEW PERFETTI HANDS JIMMY RUSSO A NEAT BEATING IN ARMORY RING

Kealey Knocks
Brady Out in Three Rounds

Clean, Fast Action in Final Bout Saves Program From Disaster.

By Dent McSkimming.

If anything were needed to prove to the casual observer that 75 per cent of the professional boxers of today are wasting their efforts in trying to gain fame and fortune in the fight game, it was had last night at the Business Men's show at the Armory. Only one bout of the four on the card was productive of the sort of boxing that is born of skill and quick thinking. The others were too crude to be called boxing exhibitions.

Low Perfetti and Jimmy Russo, fighting, saved and the first half preliminary bouts were not the sort calculated to win patrons for the fight game.

But, at the conclusion of the evening's entertainment, the crowd of 2000 appeared satisfied, because the final event was so full of clever boxing and fast action that the heartaches caused by the earlier contests were forgotten.

Russo checked at Every Turn.
Perfetti thoroughly outboxed Russo throughout the 10 rounds, coming off with scarcely a mark on his body, whereas his opponent was badly punished about the head.
In spite of the fact that he ran rapidly into a smashing left jab, Russo insisted on carrying on a vicious attack and it was through his courageous efforts to beat down his opponents' remarkable defense that the bout became an exciting battle instead of an exhibition of shadow boxing.

Perfetti, cool, crafty and elusive, snatched Russo's glove before a punch was fairly started. Late in the bout Russo became somewhat leg-weary and his leads lost their accuracy, so that the wily Low often made him miss by a foot or more. Russo's seconds proved gluttons for punishment, calling loudly, "Now you've got him, Jim finish him." But Jimmy's efforts to land were rewarded only with stiff counters to the amusement of the crowd.

Russo's attempts to put some fun into the bout by grinning when Perfetti patted him in the face became hollow and rather pathetic failures when Low invariably feinted a right to the body and smashed a left plumb on Russo's stage smile. Jimmy brought a tired dizziness in the fourth round and suddenly hounded out of the ropes with smashing rights and lefts which all but reached their mark.

No Punch, No Title.
The lack of a crushing knockout punch may cost the scientist Per-fetti a world's championship, for the boy boxes as skillfully as a Jimmy Wilde and Joe Lynch combined.

ley drove a heavy left wrist deep into Brady's middle section almost at will and hammered his oppo-lower than the top of his trunk.

In fact, just where it should be to Ray Alfano, former amateur champion, appeared to have lost all knowledge of defensive skill in his bout with Artie Kanupp. Alfano won all but two of the six rounds, due only to powerful punching.

Low Terry took five of the six rounds from Jackie Poole in the second bout. Poole had nothing to recommend him as a boxer except a good physique. His crude efforts to lead with both hands were stretched, followed by a clinch, slowed up the bout and made it a strange mixture of wrestling and foot racing, with a rare punch or two for variety.

Hornsby Coaches His Batters.
In the Art of Fence-Busting

Cardinal Manager Tells Each Man What Is Wrong With His Style at the Plate — Thevenow Shows Results of Last Year's Instruction.

By William J. McGoogan,
Of the Post-Dispatch Sport Staff.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 10.—Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Cardinals and champion slugger of the major leagues, is not content with his hard hitting ball club. Despite the fact that he has a team which should average over .300, he is working constantly to improve the technique of his men at the plate.

Every day as each man takes his bat at Waco he got two safeties in each position in batting practice the greatest batter of them all stands behind him, pointing out his faults and offering suggestions for improvement in his hitting.
"Quit crouching at the plate, Douthett," he will say, "or I have a bat here which I will use to straighten you up."

Taylor Douthett has a stance which Hornsby thinks is detrimental to his hitting. Rogers thinks if Taylor would stand straighter at the plate he would get the full benefit of his body into his drives.

Advice From an Expert.
"Vick, keep both hands on that bat when you meet the ball; you are developing into a one-handed hitter," this to Ernie Vick, one of the club's young catchers, who has been loosening the hold of his right hand on the bat just at the moment he hits the ball. By keeping both hands on the bat a player will get far more power into his hits, Rogers declares.

Warwick, get out of the batter's box when you hit this one without watching to see where it goes," Hornsby admonishes another aspirant for catching honors. Warwick has been hesitating momentarily after hitting the ball to see where it goes before starting to first base. This hesitation, in Hornsby's eye may cause the catcher to lose hits. He believes the batter should reach first base in safety, then ascertain from the coach there whether the hit is worth another base or two. And he should learn all this without the loss of the fraction of a second.

Thevenow Developing a Punch.
"You met that one nicely, Tommy," Hornsby shouts at the young shortstop. Thevenow has been regarded chiefly as a defensive player, but he has heeded the advice which Hornsby gave him in California last year when Rogers was just a player and Tom is developing into quite a hitter. In the games

Bottomley and Bell use much the same style at the plate that Hornsby does. They stand far away, watch the ball and step in to meet it just after it breaks.
A newspaper man at Waco remarked when Hornsby came to bat that Rogers should be easy for a ball low and outside. The Houston pitcher evidently had the same idea, for he dropped one over the outside corner and Hornsby didn't move after it. Thinking he had found the slugger's weakness he tried the same thing again and Hornsby smashed it over the right field fence for a home run.

tween the Cardinals and the San Antonio club was called off because of rain.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Forty-two State high school basketball teams were paired last night for four district tournaments, which will determine the teams eligible to compete for the State championship. Play will begin Friday and continue through Saturday at Joliet, Peoria, Salem and Pana. Two teams drew byes. Elgin, the State champions of last year, which plays in the Joliet district, and Danville of the Peoria district.

In each of these units 11 contestants are scheduled, while in the remaining two 10 each are paired.
The best teams of the State will meet in the finals at Urbana, March 19 and 20.

The teams competing in the four district tournaments withstood tests of eliminating more than 650 other teams throughout the State in the first round of play last week. Near-games this year, setting a high

Bear Tank Team Favored to Win
In Valley Meet

Six Schools to Be Represented in Competition Here Saturday Night.

Coach Carl Bauer's Washington
U. swimming team is tapering off a strenuous period of practice in preparation for the third annual Missouri Valley Conference title meet scheduled Saturday night in the local pool. Six valley schools are entered: Washington, Drake, Ames, Kansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma.

Washington is favored to capture the title for the third consecutive year, as a result of recent victories over two Iowa teams. The Bear paddlers took 12 out of 17 firsts and lowered two valley swim records.

Mead McCordie, who will probably compete for Washington in the nationals at Annapolis, took 14 1/2 seconds off the valley dual meet record for the 200-yard breast stroke and 12 seconds from the valley record.

Roland Baer lowered the 150-yard back stroke from 2:07.8 to 2:03.4. Baer also swims the 220 free style and is a member of the medley relay team. At present all official valley conference records are held by Washington swimmers.

Following the valley tourney the Bears engaged in a dual contest here April 10 with the University of Illinois. Following the Illinois encounter, Bauer plans to send several men to the Western A. A.
U. meet at Kansas City and to the national championships at Annapolis.

The valley preliminaries are scheduled for 10 o'clock Saturday morning and the finals at 8 o'clock at night. The officials have been announced as follows: Starter, Singer, Y. M. C. A.; head timer,
Dr. Everhardt; assistant timer,
C. D. Henry, H. Cann, Capt. Tur-ley, Dr. Marshall and A. Krause; judges, Comm. Flint, W. T. Mellow, Charles Richardson, C.
Heath, and G. Gossming; diving judges, valley coaches; clerk of course, Ray Funk; scorers, Ellers and Barry; referee, Maj. Pickering; honorary referee, Dr. Geb-hardt.

TRAINING CAMP NOTES

Babe Ruth Goes Hitless as Braves Beat Yanks — With Manager Cobb Ill, Tigers Delay Arrival at Camp.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 10.—Victory for the Giants over the Buffalo Internationals, 6 to 5, and defeat for the Yankees at the hands of the Boston Braves, 5 to 1, featured the training camp endeavors of Greater New York baseball teams in their first real exhibition tests.
The hitting of two outfield recruits featured the contests, Tyson poling a double for the Giants, while Cullen fashioned a triple and single for the Yankees and stole a base.

Landis Likes Reds' Chances.
By the Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, March 10.—A brilliant future was predicted for the Cincinnati Reds by Kansas M.
Landis, commissioner of baseball, who watched the team in two practice sessions at Orlando yesterday.
"If this team signs up Rixey, as I am sure it will, I think the Reds will make an interesting race of it. I was much impressed with the form shown by Pipp, Emmer, Christensen and some of the young pitchers. When Rixey joins the club the pitching staff will be one of the best in the league," said Landis.

Hanser Hits a Triple.
By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—Participating in his first real ball game since April, 1924, Joe Hanser, star first baseman of the Athletics, out-poling a double for the Giants,
while Cullen fashioned a triple and single for the Yankees and stole a base.

Watch the Braves, Boys!
By the Associated Press.
BOSTON, March 10.—The Braves feel a lot better today as a result of their 5 to 1 victory yesterday over the Yanks at St. Petersburg, Fla. Babe Ruth failed to get a hit, but caught hold of two of Wertz's pitches for wicked fouls which landed two or three squares from the ball park, more or less.

The Red Sox at New Orleans put on a nine-inning scrap in which the Yanigans downed the regulars, 8 to 5. Fred Haney made two doubles.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Manager Harris is sharpening up his pruning knife to trim the budding 1926 Washington Senators' lineup, with indications that he will keep five outfielders and Joe Harris will likely form the crop with which he hopes to harvest another world's series.

His big four pitching staff will be Walter Johnson, Coveleskie, Ruehrer and Bush, with Marberry,
Ferguson and Ogden in reserve.
Ruehrer and Seaver will be the backstops and the other posts are being discussed at the Tampa training camp.

ONCE in a lifetime, a blend appears that hits the smoker just where he enjoys it. But still more rarely does that blend stay put, unchanging year in and year out.

El Producto is the happy blend in this age. Its mild, yet distinctive character has won a vast army of steady friends. And the fact that the character never varies, keeps the old friends, all the while adding new ones.

Jockey Too Good for Movies.
By the Associated Press.
NICE, France, March 10.—Steve Tanguay is too good a jockey for the movies. He came to Nice to take one of the chief parts in a new film. His first work was to ride a horse in a race with an automobile, in which the car was supposed to win. But he got excited and won the race. A whole afternoon's work and many feet of film were wasted.

Zionist Who Is Dead

RABBI B. ABRAMOWITZ.

RABBI B. ABRAMOWITZ DIES IN JERUSALEM

Memorial Services to Be Held at Temple Shaare Zedek Sunday Night.

Rabbi Bernard Abramowitz, who was senior orthodox rabbi here until 1920, when his interest in the Zionist movement led him to settle in Jerusalem, the city of his boyhood, is dead.

Death occurred Saturday night in Jerusalem, according to cablegrams received here. He was 66 years old. Surviving are his widow, Mary; his daughters, Mrs. Sarah Sachar of 5656 Waterman avenue, and Miss Rebekah Abramowitz of Jerusalem, and a son, Dr. A. E. Abramowitz of New York.

Born in Lithuania, Rabbi Abramowitz moved with his family to Palestine when he was 12 years old, and in Palestine he was married and ordained. In 1894 he came to the United States, and in 1906 to St. Louis. He served as rabbi of Beth Hamedrash HaGadol congregation at Eleventh and Carr streets until 1911, when he helped to found Shaare Zedek congregation at 4800 Page boulevard.

Headed War Group.

He was a citizen of this country, yet his devotion to his Palestine never waned. This devotion was recognized nationally in 1914, when he was elected president of the Mizrahi, a branch of the Zionists. In 1916 Rabbi Abramowitz was one of four commissioners, representing American Jews, delegated to investigate conditions among the war-stricken Jews of Europe, but Germany refused them entrance. In 1920 he left St. Louis with his wife and daughter, Rebekah, to aid the Jewish colony in Palestine. An illness made him wish to see his son and daughter in this country and he journeyed alone to the United States. Upon his arrival at Union Station here, Nov. 18, 1923, he was received with emotion by 200 friends.

Memorial Services Here.

After visiting with his children, explaining the ideals of Zionism to various organizations, and receiving medical treatment at the Jewish Hospital, Rabbi Abramowitz returned to Jerusalem in October, 1924. His wife and daughter, Rebekah, were with him at the end. He will be buried in Jerusalem. Memorial services will be held at Shaare Zedek at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. Rabbi Israel Le Bendiger of the congregation will preside and Rabbi Abraham Ashinsky of Pittsburgh will deliver the eulogy.

Says Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Sluggishness, All Danger Signals of High Blood Pressure

If you did not know that these and other conditions such as sleeplessness, nervousness, shortness of breath, flushed face, pains in the head and chronic tired feeling are danger signals of high blood pressure it is time you needed their warning.

Now that it is known high blood pressure brings on Bright's Disease, Apoplexy and often sudden death, folks should not neglect these symptoms, but should check them at once.

First-class druggists everywhere are now selling a purely vegetable medicine and a famous Buffalo physician's prescription called Norma, which safely reduces high blood pressure.

Norma eliminates from the system the poisonous waste matter which may have clogged it and caused one or more organs to weaken and bring greater pressure to bear on the heart. The effect of Norma is immediate. Often one bottle will reduce high blood pressure. Many have so qualified. Check high blood with Norma. You can get it from Walgreen Drug Stores, Walgreen Drug Co., or any other food druggist.

DOUBLE AGE FOR WOMEN

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1926.

Relief Work

MEDITATIONS —OF A— MARRIED WOMAN By HELEN ROWLAND

Smiling Up the Sleeve.

In the fall from grace, "way back in Eden, the man fell for something to EAT, and the woman fell for something to WEAR!"

A bachelor's heart is like a box office. No ONE woman is allowed to "hold up the line," very long.

When you puncture a man's self-esteem or a woman's vanity, you leave love bumping along on the flat tire of an inferiority complex, all the rest of the way.

Thirty-three is the Golden Age of woman—when she gets her "second wind" her second blooming—and, so often, her second husband.

A man falls in love with a woman, not for what he sees in her, but for what he imagines she is hiding from him—some glorious, mysterious spiritual quality, for which he spends the rest of his life vainly searching.

Marriage used to be the Highway to Happiness—now it seems to be becoming just a little detour.

When a woman wants to rob a man of his resistance, she cuts the wires of his caution, switches off the current of his suspicion, and turns the spotlight on his vanity.

There are just two perfect women in every man's life—his "might-have-been" and his "going-to-be."

The greatest broadcasting receiver on earth is a woman's ear.

Alas, all that some men seem to want to know about the beautiful things in life is how to make the money to BUY them!

Wonderful French formula works wonders even in most stubborn cases of obesity—DANGER DRUGS OR EXERCISES.

If you are a fat woman let me tell you what to do. ### CHILD MANAGEMENT By DR. D. A. THOM.

In dealing with children it is necessary to find out their reasons and motives. Many times what seems like flagrant disregard for the parents' requests is to the child only an earnest desire to help mother or father, as the case may be.

The little girl of 4, who had been told time and again not to play with water, when found in the kitchen, dripping wet, having spilt water all over herself, was punished for her disobedience. Later it was learned that what she had done was to climb up on the sink to get a basin of water and a cloth with which to wash the finger marks off the doorway as she had seen mother do. She slipped, the water spilled, and punishment followed. To her it must have looked as if she were punished for trying to help.

Another little boy had learned that he must never pull up the plants in the garden. He watched his father at work getting out the little weeds in the flower bed, and a few days later, in an attempt to be helpful, he pulled up all the little growth of carrots and left standing the tall, well-developed ragweed!

Some restrictions are placed on children that it is nearly a physical impossibility for them to carry out. "Sit still" and "be quiet" are very easy to say, and yet to a healthy youngster, full of life and vigor, such commands are extremely hard to carry out for more than a few minutes at a time. Little children are growing and developing new muscle all the time, and they must have freedom to run, jump, shout and play. Nature demands it. Perhaps some special part of the house or yard may be set apart as theirs—a place with few dangers or hampering restrictions where they may safely "work off their steam" unchecked by continual nagging.

Philosophical Phrasings

Liberty was given by nature even to mute animals.—Tacitus.

Few things are impossible to diligence and skill.—Samuel Johnson.

It has been more wittily than charitably said that hell is paved with good intentions; they have their price in heaven, too.—Southey.

Loud laughter is the mirth of the mob, who are only pleased with silly things; for true wit or good sense never excited a laugh since the creation of the world.—Chesterfield.

Children's Bedtime Story By Thornton W. Burgess

The News Goes Through the Green Forest

Bad news travels fast, you'll find;
Good news often falls behind.
—Old Mother Nature.

THE little people of the Green Forest knew long before Farmer Brown's Boy did of the coming of Puma the Panther, the Mountain Lion. Every one throughout the whole of the Green Forest, with the exception of Paddy the Beaver and Buster Bear and Bobby Coon and Unc' Billy Possum, knew of Puma's coming almost as soon as he got there. Paddy the Beaver, living under the ice, of course, knew nothing of what was going on in the Green Forest. Neither did the others I have mentioned, because they were asleep.

It was Hooty the Great Horned Owl who first saw Puma, for it was in the night that Puma came down from the great mountains into the Green Forest. Hooty wasn't really afraid, but he was very much disturbed. This meant one more hunter in the Green Forest, and already there were hunters enough to Hooty's way of thinking. Hooty flew at once to where he felt sure he would find Yowler the Bob Cat. He found him without any difficulty. "I've news for you, Yowler," said he.

"Huh!" growled Yowler. "You can't have any news that will interest me!"

"Oh, can't I?" retorted Hooty. "I suppose it will not interest you to know that your biggest cousin is here in the Green Forest."

Yowler glared up at Hooty without winking. "My biggest cousin in the North is Puma the Panther, and there hasn't been one of his family in the Green Forest since my great-great-grandfather's time," said Yowler.

"That may be," replied Hooty, "but there is one of the family here now. I saw him here this very night."

"Huh!" snarled Yowler. "Those eyes of yours are so big they see things that aren't. If you think you can scare me with any such story as that, you had better think again."

"Just as you say," replied Hooty. "But if I were you, I would keep my eyes open." With this Hooty flew to look for Old Man Coyote. As for Yowler, he quite clearly was uneasy. He didn't want to believe, but he had to. There was something about the way that Hooty had spoken that made Yowler feel that he had been telling the truth. It was very disturbing. Yowler never had seen his big cousin, but he knew that that big cousin was a great deal bigger than he. He was afraid, was Yowler.

Before that night was over Old Man Coyote and Reddy Fox and Billy Mink and Little Joe Otter and Shadow the Weasel had heard the news. Before jolly, round, red Mr. Sun went to bed behind the Purple Hills the next night Chatterer the Red Squirrel, Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel, Rusty the Fox Squirrel, Jumper the Hare, Peter Rabbit, Mrs. Grouse and all the other little people in feather and fur who were awake had heard the news. And each, when he or she heard it, shivered. No news that ever had reached the Green Forest had caused so many shivers as did the news of the arrival of Puma the Panther.

But the ones who shivered most were Lightfoot the Deer and his family. Hitherto Lightfoot and Mrs. Lightfoot had feared no one but the hunters with the terrible guns, and they came only for a short time once a year. They respected big Buster Bear, but they did not fear him because they knew that they could keep out of his reach. But now, when they knew that Puma the Panther was particularly fond of deer meat.

It's a pleasure to decorate a cake made with Enterprise—for its light, well risen beauty brings a smile of satisfaction to eyes that sparkle less readily than Irish.

In its all-purpose usefulness and everlasting dependability Valier's Enterprise Flour is Irish itself. It's always the same—always rich with the strength of the glutenous centers of the choicest hard wheat grown—always worth the little difference between its cost and that of ordinary flour.

From bread and biscuit to pie and cake—the rich glutenous strength of Enterprise is the foundation of uniform success in everything you bake. Order a sack today, and try this popular recipe.

Make a little extra icing for the Shamrocks. Use vegetable dye to color it—and let the Shamrock outlined above be your pattern.
